

These questions are provided for your further study and application of the message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others.

LifeGroup Discussion

Date: August 27, 2017

Proverbs 13:22

1. You can leave your children all the money in the world and still leave them bankrupt. Can you name examples of famous or well-known people who were left a large inheritance but still ruined their lives?
2. The first point of the sermon on Sunday was "leave love." Why is it important that we give our children love before we give them faith?
3. Have someone read Deuteronomy 6:4-15. How did God command the Israelites to continue to teach his truths after they inherited the promised land?
4. What are ways you can leave God's word with your children and grandchildren? How can you begin to do that now?
5. Have someone read Joshua 24:14-15. How did Joshua set an example? How are we called upon to set a similar example for others today?
6. Pastor Craig talked mostly about parents and their children. As the church, we are a family as well. How can you leave an inheritance to others within your church family who are not your children or grandchildren?
7. Family verse: Read and memorize Proverbs 13:22. How are you investing right now?