Luke 5:1-11

1. Jesus's miraculous catch was preceded by Peter's failure to catch anything. Share a time when you experienced failure until God made a way. How does that strengthen your faith?

2. Luke 5:1 describes the crowd in frenzy over Jesus. Do you believe the world is spiritually hungry today? How are you preparing to present Truth when the time comes?

3. Read Isaiah 6:5-9. Isaiah and Peter both understood their unworthiness, yet God used them to preach His message. How does this encourage you to know God has a unique plan for you?

4. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says you are a new creation; the old has passed away. One of the best witnesses of the Holy Spirit's work in the lives of believers is the change others see. How can your actions be a way God draws unbelievers to Himself?

5. Jesus took fishermen and made them fishers of men. How can God use your vocation and spiritual gifts to bring people to Him?

6. In Colossians 3:2, you are instructed to focus on things that are above. How does our consumer-driven society make it difficult to hold onto the Blessor instead of the blessing?

7. What steps can the church, and your LifeGroup, take to become more active in sharing the Gospel in today's culture?
