

LifeGroups are the lifeblood of our church. If you aren't a member of a LifeGroup, contact us so we can connect you with a group.

These questions provide a framework for individual or family study and for discussions in LifeGroup. LifeGroups meet at 9:45 AM on Sundays.

malvernhill.org/ministries-and-resources/lifegroups

4. Jesus commands us to bless those who curse us, pray for those who abuse us, and even to turn the other cheek to one who strikes us. How can you decide ahead of time to respond in a godly way to those who treat you wrongly?

5. On Sunday, Pastor Craig said good deeds earn opportunities to share the good news, but there are also other reasons to do good. Read Jeremiah 29:4-7. How were God's people living in exile expected to live in relation to the world around them?

6. Read Luke 6:36. What reason does Jesus give for us to be merciful? How can our acts of mercy help others to better understand the mercy of God?

7. The last point on Sunday was to smile at those who curse you. How can joy be an evangelistic tool for Christians? How can you show joy this week in places where people are not always joyful?

Worship Night

Sunday, March 22
6:00PM

malvernhill.churchcenter.com/calendar

Luke 6:27-36

1. In Matthew 22:39, Jesus said that his followers should "love your neighbor as yourself." Why is loving our neighbor sometimes difficult?

2. Jesus commands us to not only love our neighbors, but our enemies as well. Why is it important for Christians to love their enemies? What does this show the world?

3. Read Romans 13:1-7. How should Christians reconcile the call to love your enemy with Paul's teaching about the role of government in administering laws and even in bearing the sword?