

LifeGroups are the lifeblood of our church. If you aren't a member of a LifeGroup, contact us so we can connect you with a group.

These questions provide a framework for individual or family study and for discussions in LifeGroup. LifeGroups meet at 9:45 AM on Sundays.

4. When Mary recognized Jesus, what did she call him (verse 16)? How does Jesus's resurrection help us to know that Jesus is more than a teacher?

5. According to John 20:17, Jesus told Mary to go tell the other disciples, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." How do these words of Jesus call the disciples to continue to trust him in faith, even after the resurrection?

6. Read John 20:18. How did Mary respond after seeing Jesus? The Great Commission commands us to go and make disciples. How is the Great Commission fulfilled as we announce the good news of Christ's resurrection? How do we sometimes make the Great Commission more difficult than it actually is?

7. After celebrating the death and resurrection of Christ and reading the gospel accounts over the last week, what are you prompted to do in your own life?

John 20:11-18

1. We just celebrated Easter, but every Sunday is actually a celebration of Christ's resurrection. What are the obstacles that keep you from celebrating the resurrection with joy each week?
2. Read John 20:1-10. When the disciples ran to the tomb with Mary, they believed what she had told them, that his body was gone. Why did they not yet understand that Jesus had been resurrected? How do their initial doubts add credence to the argument of the resurrection?
3. According to John 20:1 and 20:11-16, Mary Magdalene was the first to know that the tomb was empty and that Jesus had risen. What do you learn about Jesus and about his plan to reach everyone based on the fact that he first revealed himself to a woman who had a bad reputation (Luke 8:1-3)?
