Psalm 12

1. Psalm 12 begins with David crying, "Save, O Lord." When life feels overwhelming, where do you usually turn first before turning to God? What is the difference between saying "I believe God can help me" and actually trusting Him when things are hard?
2. David looked around and saw that "the faithful have vanished." He felt like godliness was disappearing and wickedness was surrounding him. Have you ever felt alone in trying to follow Christ? What makes that difficult?
3. David saw the wickedness clearly, but he also remembered who God was. How can Christians be honest about the brokenness around us without becoming fearful, bitter, or hopeless? How does the cross show that God does not ignore the suffering and sin of the world?

4. David contrasts the lies of people with the pure words of the Lord. What voices do you listen to most, and how can you tell whether they are leading you toward truth or away from it?

5. We talked about storing up God's Word in your heart before hard times come. What is one truth from Scripture you need to hold onto right now?

6. Serving is one way God builds relationships, uses our gifts, and grows his people. How can serving faithfully help you grow in faith and help others trust the Lord?

7. Read Hebrews 11:1. What is the difference between biblical faith and just hoping things work out?
