Psalm 19:1-10

1. As you consider the start of a new school year, how can you pray for students, parents, and teachers in our community? (For access to a prayer guide, scan this QR code or visit the resources tab of our website.)

2. Read Psalm 19:1. How do you perceive God's glory through creation? How might you use the beauty and wonder of creation to point someone toward Jesus?

3. God's revelation in nature is sometimes referred to as natural revelation, while his revelation through Jesus and Scripture is referred to as special revelation. Why is God's special revelation through Scripture necessary for salvation?

4. This past Sunday, we celebrated the children's ministry at Malvern Hill. Talk with your group about why we must prioritize the discipleship of children. What Bible passages would you use to support your position?

5. Read Psalm 19:7-9. Do you find joy in God's law? What about God's law was so valuable to David as he wrote this Psalm? How can you work to find more joy and satisfaction in God's law?

6. In Psalm 19:10, the Psalmist says that the Law of the Lord is not only righteous, but valuable and desirable. How is God's law practically beneficial, as well as spiritually valuable, in the everyday aspects of your life?

7. Read Psalm 19:13-14. How does David pray for the Lord to help him to live a faithful life? How can you pray for God to help you to live faithfully as a follower of Christ?
