Scripture Memory Verse

For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Romans 1:19

Luke 8:26-39

1. Luke 8:26-39 shares an incredible story of demon possession and deliverance. How is demon possession viewed in our world today? How should Christians understand the demonic and the role of Christ in the process of deliverance?
2. What stands out to you about the man whom Jesus encountered? What similarities to this man do you find in our world today?
3. According to verse 28, the demon-possessed man recognized Jesus immediately. Read Romans 1:18-19. What does Paul teach us in these verses about the knowledge of God? How is the knowledge of God suppressed? Why is the knowledge of God suppressed?

4. It is easy to understand that the townspeople were afraid of the demon-possessed man. Why were they afraid of Jesus after he healed the man? When have you seen a changed life result in alienation rather than celebration?

5. In the previous passage, we saw Jesus calm a storm on the sea. In this passage, we see Jesus calm the "storm" inside of a demon-possessed man. How do these passages help you to see the holistic power of Jesus to bring salvation?

6. When the demons went into the herd of pigs, they ran into the sea and drowned themselves. Ultimately, fellowship with the demonic leads to destruction. How does the modern world deny this reality and encourage people to believe the lie instead of trusting Christ?

7. What can we learn from the healed man's desire to follow Jesus and from Jesus's command that he stay and tell the good news? How can you respond to Jesus's transforming power in your own life?
