Luke 9:37-43

1. Jesus was back to ministry after the transfiguration. How do mountaintop experiences prepare Christ's followers for the work of ministry? How can the mountaintops prepare you for the valleys?

2. What stands out to you most in this story about Jesus healing a boy with a demon? How do you think the disciples felt about their inability to heal him?

3. Read part of Mark's account of this event in Mark 9:20-29. How did the father respond to Jesus? How do you relate to this father's struggle of believing and struggling to believe all at the same time? How are you encouraged to know you can even pray for the Lord to meet you in your lack of belief?

4. The father in this event must have been discouraged when the disciples were not able to heal his son. What would have happened (or not happened) if he had judged Jesus based on the failure of his disciples? How do people sometimes make judgments about Jesus today based on the worst examples of those who claim to be followers of Christ?

5. In Matthew 17:20 we read it was because of their lack of faith that the disciples were not able to cast out this demon. In Mark 9, Jesus says it was because of their lack of prayer. How does our prayer life show our faith (or lack thereof)?

6. The crowd was amazed at the work of God. What has God done that caused you to be amazed? Why do we sometimes cease to give God praise and be amazed by his work?

7. It seems as though the disciples tried to cast out this demon with their own power. How do Christians today often try to do God's work in their own power? How do you think the impact of the church is affected by a lack of prayer and dependence on Christ?
