

CURSIVE LOGIC RISING 3rd GRADE SUMMER PRACTICE

Complete one poem or saying each week. The Cursive Logic pages will be due on the first day of school.

1. "At the Seaside" by Robert Louis Stevenson
2. "Rain" by Robert Louis Stevenson
3. "White Butterflies" by Algernon Charles Swinburne
4. "Preamble to the Constitution"
5. Clara Barton quote
6. Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address excerpt
7. Jesse Owens quote
8. "The Stars" by Christina Rossetti
9. Ancient Proverb
10. "September" by Helen Hunt Jackson

Practice

At the Seaside
by Robert Louis Stevenson

TRACE

When I was down beside the sea

WRITE

TRACE

A wooden spade they gave to me

WRITE

TRACE

To dig the sandy shore

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

My holes were empty like a cup,

WRITE

TRACE

I'm every hole the sea came up,

WRITE

TRACE

Till it could come no more.

WRITE

Practice

Rain

by Robert Louis Stevenson

TRACE

The rain is raining all around,

WRITE

TRACE

It falls on field and tree,

WRITE

TRACE

It rains on the umbrellas here,

WRITE

TRACE

And on the ships at sea.

WRITE

Practice

White Butterflies

by Algernon Charles Swinburne

TRACE

Fly, white butterflies, out to sea,

WRITE

TRACE

Trail, pale wings for the wind to try,

WRITE

TRACE

Small white wings that we scarce can see,

WRITE

TRACE

Fly!

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

Some fly light as a laugh of glee,

WRITE

TRACE

Some fly soft as a long, low sigh,

WRITE

TRACE

All to the haven where each would be,

WRITE

TRACE

Fly!

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

Preamble to the Constitution

WRITE

TRACE

We the People of the United States,

WRITE

TRACE

in Order to form a more perfect

WRITE

TRACE

Union, establish Justice, insure domestic

WRITE

TRACE

Tranquility, provide for the common

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

defense, promote the general Welfare,

WRITE

TRACE

and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain

WRITE

TRACE

WRITE

TRACE

and establish this Constitution for the

WRITE

TRACE

United States of America.

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

I may be compelled to face danger,

WRITE

TRACE

but never fear it, and while our

WRITE

TRACE

soldiers can stand and fight, I can stand and feed and nurse them.

WRITE

TRACE

WRITE

TRACE

Clara Barton

WRITE

Practice

Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address

TRACE

With malice toward none, with charity

WRITE

TRACE

for all; with firmness in the right, as

WRITE

TRACE

God gives us to see the right, let us

WRITE

TRACE

strive on to finish the work we are in,

WRITE

TRACE

to bind up the nation's wounds; to care

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

for him who shall have borne the

WRITE

TRACE

battle, and for his widow, and his

WRITE

TRACE

orphan—to do all which may achieve

WRITE

TRACE

and cherish a just and lasting peace

WRITE

TRACE

among ourselves, and with all nations.

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

We all have dreams. In order to

WRITE

TRACE

make dreams come into reality, it

WRITE

TRACE

takes an awful lot of determination,

WRITE

TRACE

dedication, self-discipline and effort.

WRITE

TRACE

— Jesse Owens

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

The Stars by Christina Rossetti

What do the stars do

Up in the sky,

Higher than the wind can blow

Or the clouds can fly?

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

Do you see someone who does a good job?

They will serve kings rather than working for ordinary people.

— Ancient Proverb

WRITE

Practice

TRACE

September by Helen Hunt Jackson

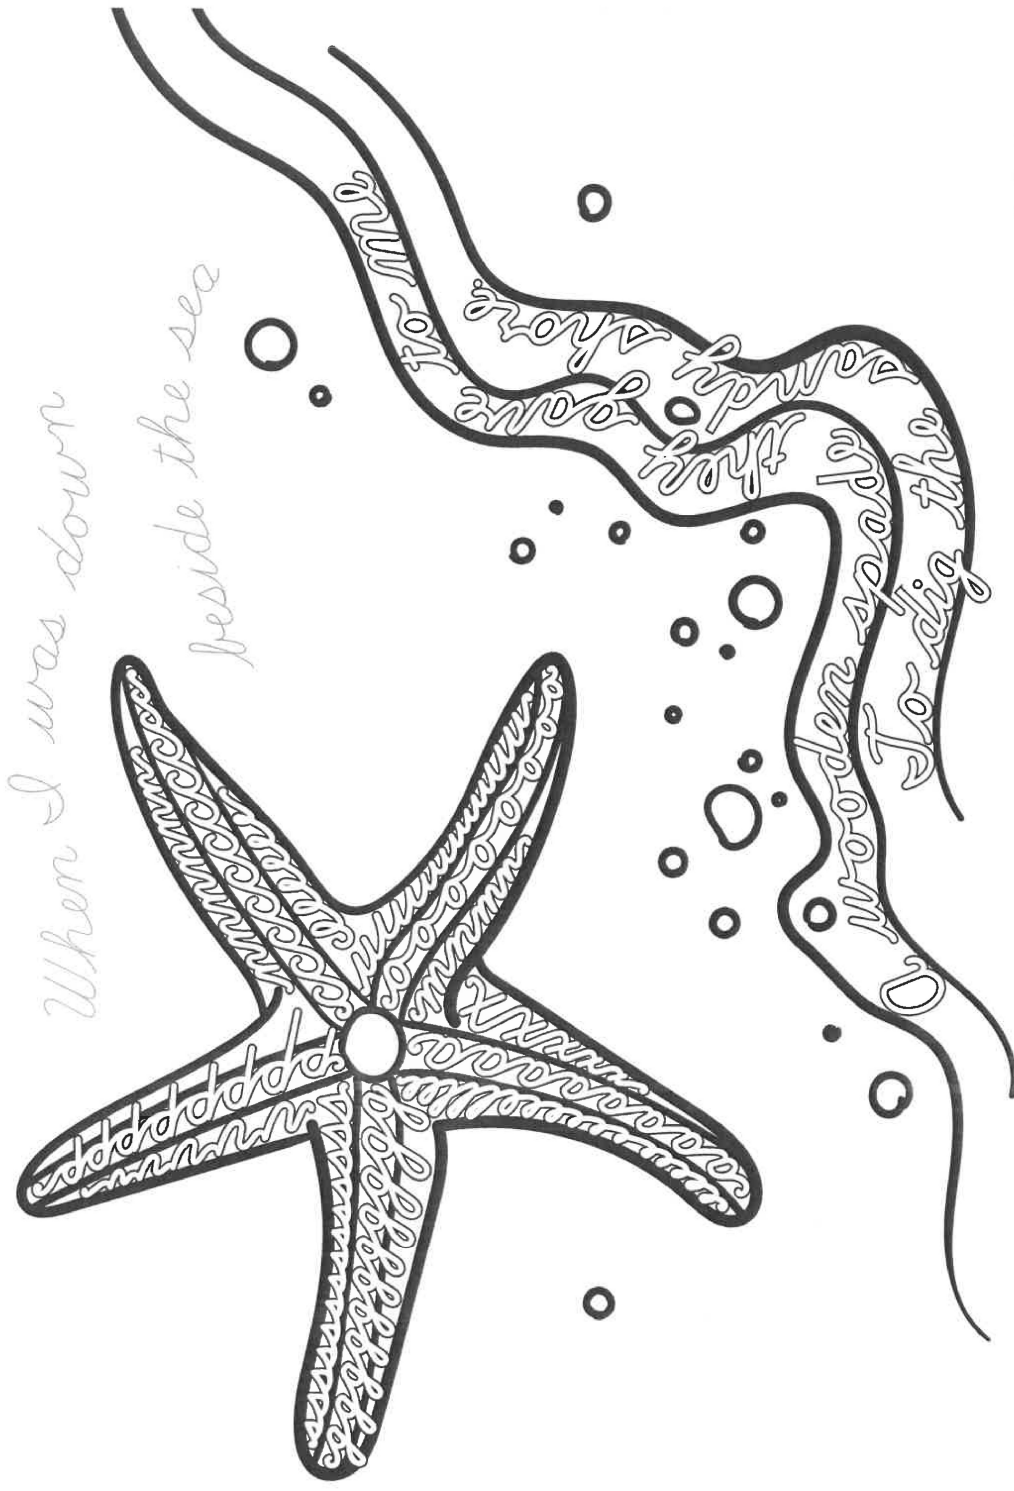

The goldenrod is yellow,

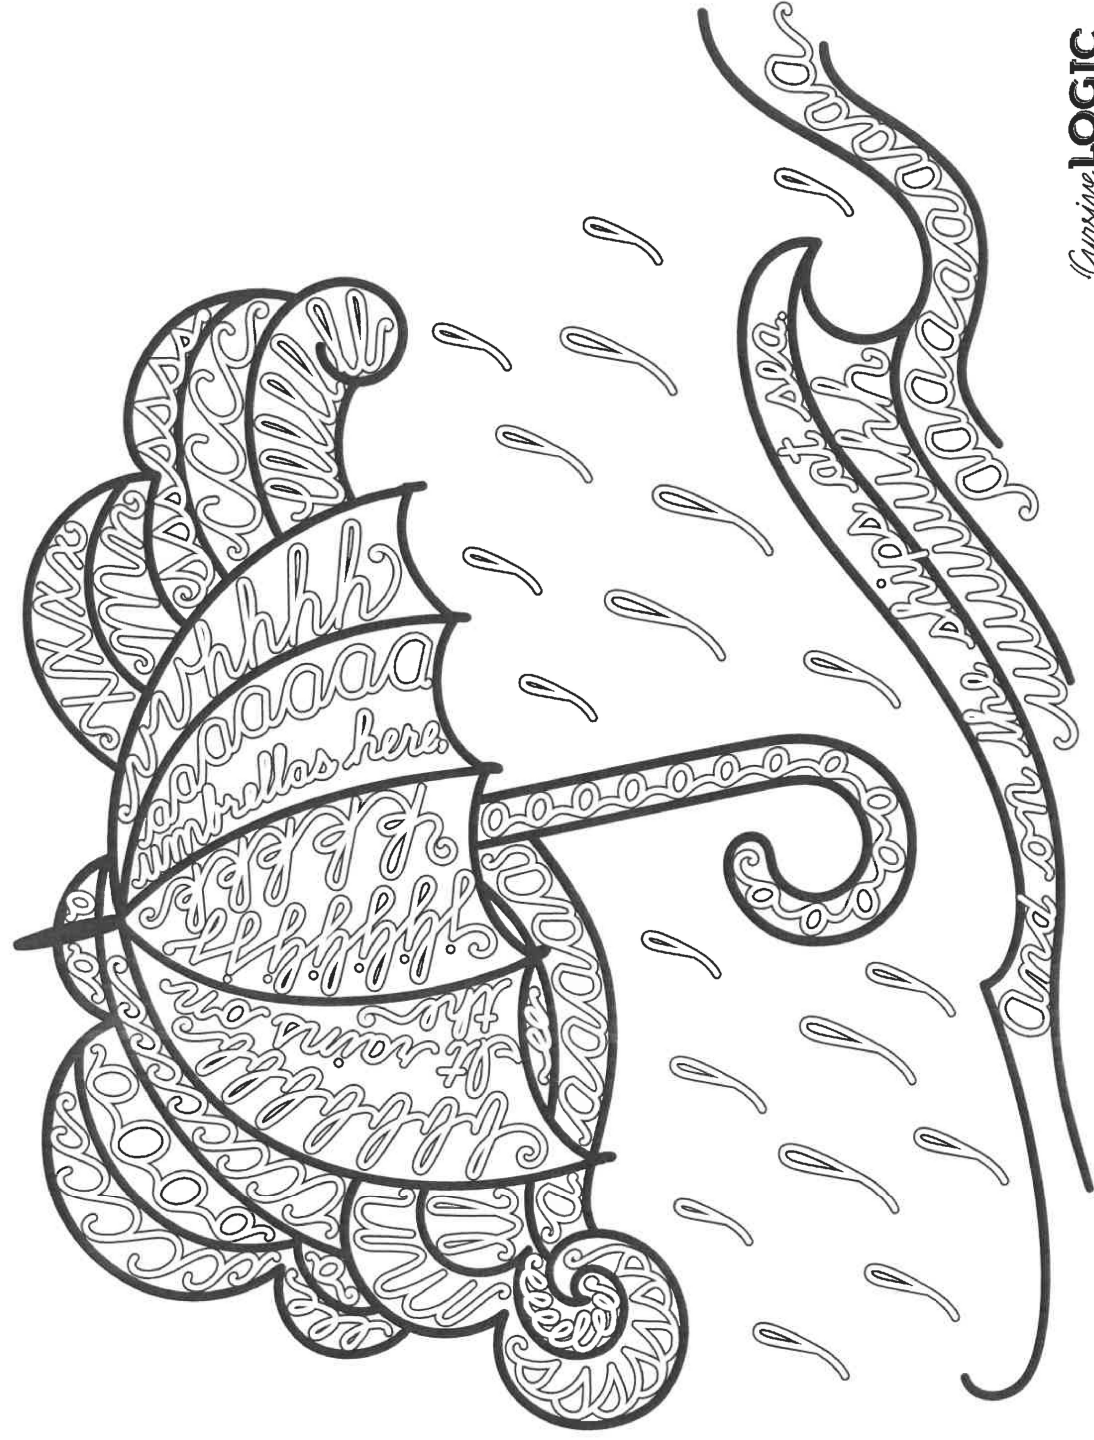

The corn is turning brown,

The trees in apple orchards

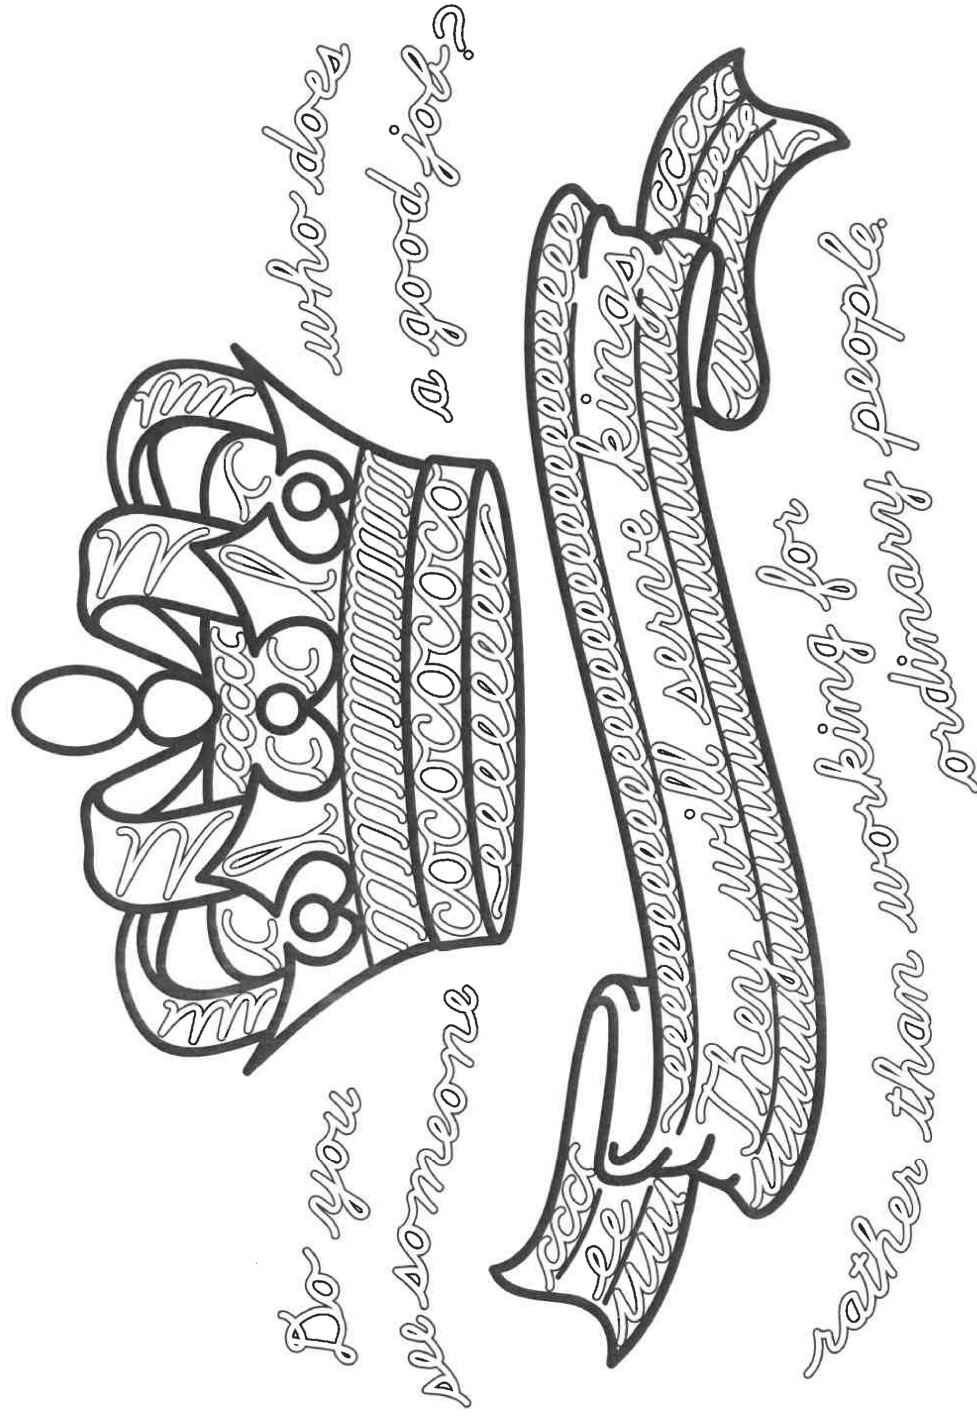

With fruit are bending down.

WRITE

Cursive LOGIC

— Ancient Proverb