Cheyne Congregation 175th Anniversary Year: In 1844, Rev. Cheyne's congregation met in the Mount Albion schoolhouse. In 1847, Saltfleet Presbyterian Church was built on the north side of Mud St a mile or a mile and a half east of Albion Falls. Rev. Cheyne retired in 1874 and the church was renamed sometime after that. That first church was vacated in 1918 when the congregation moved to Stoney Creek. A new white church was built on First St. S. for the Cheyne congregation. The original church was moved and became the Parish Hall for St George's Anglican Church in Hannon (Dartnall Rd and Rymal Road). The Parish Hall demolished in 1960 for road widening. St George's Cemetery is all that is there now. St George's church was moved in 1973 to Balls Falls and it is still there today. Current church was built in 1960 with additions in 1981, and 1987.
