
WAITING in HOPE

INFERTILITY SUPPORT MINISTRIES

Who are we?

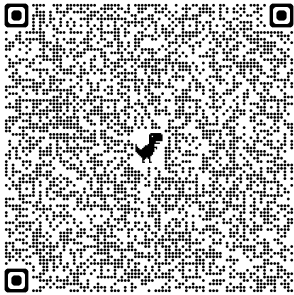

Waiting in Hope is a national, Bible-based infertility support ministry for those walking through infertility, miscarriage, adoption, or seasons of waiting. We believe Jesus is our greatest hope, meeting us where we are at and walking alongside us through it.

Where do we meet?

This group meets on the fourth Monday of every month from 6:15-7:30 pm at Munster Church in Munster, IN in the CLC building, located in the east parking lot.

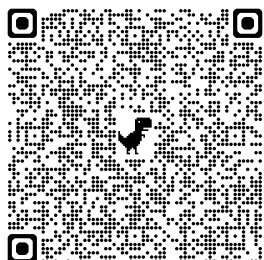

What are we studying?

We are working through The Guide to Waiting in Hope. It can be purchased on Amazon.

Where do I sign up?

We look forward to meeting you at our next evening. Sign up here by the 15th of the month.

WAITING in HOPE

INFERTILITY SUPPORT MINISTRIES

Our next evening together will be Monday May 18 from 6:15-7:30 pm

There are times you may feel like you're walking around with a giant label on your head that says "infertile". Even if you haven't told many people about your struggles, you can often feel like an outcast. This is such a vulnerable and lonely place to be. This journey can feel chaotic with a lot of things completely out of your control. If we are honest with ourselves, our attempt to be in control can give us a small sense of security, but it often comes with heaps of anxiety. Control is simply an illusion that the enemy loves to trap us in. Let's remember who we belong to. We are daughters of the Most high God. He will never leave us feeling out of control, worthless, lacking, alone.

This infertility, loss, and waiting journey can be lonely. We have many appointments, dates to remember, things to track, insurance to work with, and so much more. Emotions and tasks start piling and the need to find a way to control what is out of our hands is weighing us down. How do we manage it all and not lose ourselves? How are we supposed to feel God's hand in all of this mess? How do we "let go, and let God". Friend, it's not going to be easy, but that is what Waiting in Hope is here for. We look forward to an evening with you where we will learn more about the One who always fights the hardest for you. The One who has the actual control. The One who calms every storm and anxiety. Exodus 14:14 says "The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be still."
