

ACCESS ACS PRIVACY POLICY

As the Internet software hosting provider for this organization's online services, ACS Technologies Group, Inc. (ACS Technologies) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information that you and this organization provide to us. This statement explains our policies and practices regarding the use and disclosure of your personal information by ACS Technologies.

Because your use of this Site indicates your acceptance of the ACS Technologies Privacy Policy, please review this Privacy Policy carefully. Please note that ACS Technologies reviews and updates this Privacy Policy from time to time as needed without notice. Therefore, you should review the terms of this policy periodically to make sure that you are aware of how ACS Technologies collects and uses personal information. By using this Site, you consent to the collection and use of your personal information by ACS Technologies as explained below.

Please note: ACS Technologies cannot accept or create account information, or accept credit card payments, from individuals who are under 14 years of age. Parents and/or Guardians must create an account first, and then add family members under the age of 14 to their family account profile.

Terms defined in the Terms of Use shall have the same meaning in this privacy Policy.

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND USE

The organization for which ACS Technologies is serving as an Internet software hosting provider is the sole owner of the information collected on this Site. ACS Technologies provides the application, forms, and programs to collect and manage this information. ACS Technologies uses collected information to provide or improve Services for Users, and as more particularly set forth below. We may use collected information to contact Users for a variety of reasons, including, without limitation, obtaining information from Users regarding their use of the Site and Services and ways we can improve them. We use this information in ways we determine appropriate in our sole discretion, and we reserve the right to do so.

We will not sell, rent, or trade personally identifiable information to anyone, and we will not disclose any collected information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement.

ACS Technologies collects personally identifiable information when the organization for which ACS Technologies is serving as an Internet software hosting provider uploads this information to this Site, when you register for an account, and when you use certain ACS Technologies products or services.

ACS Technologies may also receive personally identifiable information from our business partners.

When the organization for which ACS Technologies is serving as an Internet Software hosting provider uploads information, we receive personally identifiable information including, but not limited to, your name, address, phone number, and email address. Once you register for an account and sign in to our services, you are not anonymous to us and we receive and record information about your browser including IP address, cookie information and the page you requested.

Financial Transaction Information ACS Technologies does not accept or store any credit card information or bank account information. ACS Technologies uses a third party intermediary to perform any financial information collection and transaction processing. If you, as a User, perform a financial transaction with us or our intermediary, the intermediary must request information from you. This information includes, but is not limited to credit card information or bank account information.

Our intermediary is solely a link in the distribution chain, and uses the information provided for the sole purpose of processing the transaction. We recommend Users read the Privacy Policy of this intermediary which can also be found on the payment page of this Site.

Cookies ACS Technologies uses "cookies". Cookies are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. Generally, cookies work by assigning to your computer a unique number that has no meaning outside of our site. Our cookies do not contain any personally identifying information; we use them to provide features such as personalization, and to save your user ID and password after you have entered a session so that you do not have to re-enter it repeatedly during that session. A cookie cannot read data off of your hard drive or read cookie files created by other sites. Information stored in cookies may be encrypted; however, we do not store your credit card number in cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies; however, you can usually change your browser setting to prevent it. Not accepting cookies may make certain features on this service unavailable to you.

INFORMATION SHARING AND DISCLOSURE

ACS Technologies does not sell, rent, trade or transfer User Information to third parties. However, we may share User Information with our business partners for marketing, advertising or product/service offering purposes.

ACS Technologies may send personally identifiable information about you to other companies or people when:

- a. We have your consent to share the information;
- b. We need to share your information to provide the product or service you have requested;
- c. We need to send the information to companies who work on behalf of ACS Technologies to provide a product or service to you. Unless we tell you differently, these companies do not have any right to use the personally identifiable information we provide to them beyond what is necessary or appropriate in our discretion to assist us in providing your product or service;
- d. We respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process; or
- e. We find that your actions on our Site violate the ACS Technologies Terms of Use or any of our usage guidelines for specific Services.

We may share aggregated demographic information with our customers, business partners, and advertisers. This is not linked to any personal information that can identify any individual person.

Links This Site contains links to other third party Sites. Even if the third party is affiliated with ACS Technologies through a business partnership or otherwise, ACS Technologies is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices or the content of such external links. We encourage our Users to be aware when they leave our Site and to read the privacy statements of each and every site that collects personally identifiable information. This Privacy Policy applies solely to information collected by this Site.

SECURITY

Username and Passwords Access to certain content on this Site requires a username, site number and password. Your registration and/or account information is password-protected for your privacy and security. In some cases, failure to provide personal information may prevent you from accessing parts of this Site containing certain confidential information.

Any disclosure of your password to a third party may result in access to your registration and/or account information or execution of transactions. By accessing and using our protected and secured Site, you agree to maintain the confidentiality of the username, site number and password you selected to access such site and consent to our Terms of Use.

ACS Technologies uses industry-standard SSL-encryption to protect your data transmissions of financial and personally identifiable information.

ACCESSING AND CHANGING YOUR INFORMATION

You can view and update your personal information at any time by signing in to your account on our Site and changing your profile information.

Opt-out The organization for which ACS Technologies is serving as an Internet Software hosting provider needs to be able to communicate at times with all Users, and therefore we reserve the right to contact Users for them. Users who do not wish to be contacted should contact the particular organization for which we are serving as an Internet Software hosting provider. Please refer to the Privacy Policy of this organization for additional information.
