All families are encouraged to attend our Wednesday night services at 6:30pm.

TEAMKID– For ages Nursery-6th grade
Youth Bible Study– Students 7th-12th grade

Our adult class meets in the sanctuary. We are studying how to “come clean before God.” This study is about taking time to confess our sins before we pray. Please remember, unless you have a clean heart before God—you are wasting your time praying! (Psalm 66:18)

MVBC Welcomes Chad Prewett Next Sunday In Our Worship Service!

We are blessed to have as our guest speaker on August, 2, 2026, Chad Prewett. Chad joined the Auburn basketball coaching staff prior to Bruce Pearls first season. He started as a special assistant to the head coach and spent time as the Program Director of Basketball Operations before becoming the Assistant Coach. After 11 years on the Plains, Coach Prewett resigned in 2025 to follow God's direction in being part of “Unite Us”, an evangelistic ministry to college students. “Unite Us” is a ministry that God put on the heart of Tonya Prewett, Chad's wife, to lift up the name of Jesus on college campuses. On September 12, 2023, thousands of college students gathered at Auburn University's Neville Arena with one single focus-to lift the Name of Jesus. What began in Auburn, Alabama has continued to grow into a movement reaching college campuses across the nation. We look forward to August 2, during our morning worship service, when we will hear how Chad and Tonya have been used by God through their faithfulness in doing what God put on their hearts. This is going to be a great service that you don't want to miss!
