What Makes the Bible So Great?

By Robert Lupo

Focus 2026

There are so many things we could say about what makes the Bible so great. We could talk about how it was transferred and preserved over so many centuries or how it never contradicts itself though it was written by about 40 men of incredibly diverse backgrounds. But, sometimes it's best to just let the Bible speak for itself. In Psalm 19, verses 7-9, David gives us six reasons why the Bible is so great.

First, David writes, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul..." (v. 7a). God's Word is the ultimate apologetic. It never makes mistakes. It is perfectly in harmony about the nature of God and His desire to rescue man from sin. The Bible continues to change the hearts of man to give up worldliness and embrace godliness.

Second, "The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple..." (v. 7b). The word "sure" means "faithful, reliable, or permanent." We can trust the Word of God because it never changes. So, no matter who picks up the Word of God, they can trust in the wisdom it gives.

Third, "The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart..." (v. 8a). The Bible is never wrong about how we ought to live. If we are doing what the Bible says, then we know we are doing the right thing. What a relief it is that we do not have to be in the dark on moral dilemmas.

Fourth, "The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes..." (v. 8b). Sometimes the way we perceive things clouds our judgment. As Jesus explained in Matthew 7:3-5, we must remove the planks from our eyes so that we can see clearly and judge others righteously. So, how do we clear up our preconceptions? We must see what the Lord commands in His Word and not go beyond it or take away from it.

Fifth, "The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever..." (v. 9a). The Bible teaches us our proper place before God. He is the eternal, loving Creator of the universe. If we submit to His will, the Bible shows us that we will live with Him forever.

Sixth, "The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether" (v. 9b). The Bible reveals the perfect character of our heavenly Father. I can rest assured that all things that God has decreed are what is best for me. I have no need to question His perfect judgment.

The Bible is the greatest book ever written because it is the Word of the living God. How precious are the words of God to you? Verse 10 of Psalm 19 says, "More to be desired are they than gold, Yea, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb." Do you desire to study the Bible like you should? Do you talk to others about the Bible like you should? How great is the Bible to you?
