YOUTH PIZZA FUNDRAISER

We have three students attending Challenge, which is our national youth conference: Ajay Smukalla, Ryerson Boulais, and Wyatt Whitaker. One of the ways that students can raise money to pay for challenge is by selling Ole and Lena's Pizzas during the month of February. I always ask students not to approach people to sell pizzas on Sunday mornings at church. We don't want to interrupt your worship or your fellowship with the church. But students are instructed to have their forms with them in case you would like to approach them. If you don't actually want to order pizzas, don't feel pressured to do it just to support us. There will be other opportunities to support us! Pray for us and for the national team putting on Challenge!

MEALS FOR RADIATE

Thank you to all of the families and small groups who provided meals for youth group this fall! A sign-up to provide meals for January through April is now up on the Radiate bulletin board. Providing meals each week helps us reach students who are committed to sports or live out of town and is a blessing to our students who serve with AWANA.
This spring we expect a group of about 30-35 each week. Brandon
