

Whatever is to Come, Jesus is Enough

Philippians 4:10-14

Pastor Ben Tacoma

Shining Stars

Paul rejoices but NOT because they're meeting his needs and improving his circumstances.

He rejoices because of their partnership and growth in Christ.

Circumstances Proverbs 30:8-9; Matt. 6:11, 13:22

Circumstances of poverty and want

Circumstances of wealth and comfort

Stoics: Contentment is self-actualized from within yourself. You must detach from circumstances. "You are enough"

Paul: Contentment is found in Jesus Christ. You must lively entirely dependent on Him. "Jesus is enough"

Triumphalism ≠ Contentment Job 1:20-21

"I am able to do all things through him who strengthens me"

Poverty/Wealthy mindset concerned with circumstances improvement = the health and wealth 'gospel'

CONTEXT IS KING WHEN INTERPRETTING

How does vs.12 help us read vs.13 correctly in context?

Christ-sufficiency

Christ-sufficiency is radical dependence on Jesus in any and all circumstance.

The secret of contentment is:

Standing firm in the Lord

Rejoicing in the Lord

Adopting the gracious attitude of the Lord

Praying with thanksgiving to the Lord

Dwelling on the Word of the Lord

Resting in the peace of the Lord

The confession of Christian contentment:

'Whatever is to come, Jesus is enough for me'

Whatever is to Come, Jesus is Enough

Philippians 4:10-14

Pastor Ben Tacoma

Shining Stars

Paul rejoices but NOT because they're meeting his needs and improving his circumstances.

He rejoices because of their partnership and growth in Christ.

Circumstances Proverbs 30:8-9; Matt. 6:11, 13:22

Circumstances of poverty and want

Circumstances of wealth and comfort

Stoics: Contentment is self-actualized from within yourself. You must detach from circumstances. "You are enough"

Paul: Contentment is found in Jesus Christ. You must lively entirely dependent on Him. "Jesus is enough"

Triumphalism ≠ Contentment Job 1:20-21

"I am able to do all things through him who strengthens me"

Poverty/Wealthy mindset concerned with circumstances improvement = the health and wealth 'gospel'

CONTEXT IS KING WHEN INTERPRETTING

How does vs.12 help us read vs.13 correctly in context?

Christ-sufficiency

Christ-sufficiency is radical dependence on Jesus in any and all circumstance.

The secret of contentment is:

Standing firm in the Lord

Rejoicing in the Lord

Adopting the gracious attitude of the Lord

Praying with thanksgiving to the Lord

Dwelling on the Word of the Lord

Resting in the peace of the Lord

The confession of Christian contentment:

'Whatever is to come, Jesus is enough for me'