Read Psalm 139 aloud.

1. Which verse or verses stand out to you?
2. As you meditate on the fact that you are known by God, what feelings or emotions does that evoke?

The concept that we may impress people with our strengths, but we connect through our weaknesses was addressed in film.

1. Can you share about examples from your own life where you saw this in action?

Read 2 Corinthians 5:17

1. What areas of your “old self” do you still see yourself as or still return to (i.e. angry, arrogant, addictions)?

Augie had to accept who he was to move forward in his life.

1. Have you fully embraced who you are as an uniquely created individual?
2. What do you think would change if you stopped being something other than who you are?
3. What mask are you wearing that needs to come off? How do the verses 7-8 in Psalm 139 speak to the concept of “wearing a mask”?

“Be kind for everyone is fighting a battle. If you really want to see who people are, all you have to do is look.” Augie
