Ridgecrest Adventist Elementary

Parent Essay

Ridgecrest Adventist Elementary is providing your child with a Christian Education that will prepare them for high school and life. It is our commitment to help your child grow academically, physically, socially, and spiritually and challenge them to their highest potential. We would like you to write why you would like to see your child in this school and what your commitment will be to help us achieve our goals for all our students.