UMW DISCONTINUES SELLING EQUAL EXCHANGE/ FAIR TRADE PRODUCTS

Unfortunately, the UMW has had to discontinue selling Equal Exchange/Fair Trade coffee, tea and chocolate as we have in the past. We have been engaged in this mission project for many years, helping small farmers and their families in the developing world get a fair price for their products. From the small profit we earned over the years, we have given thousands of dollars to local programs helping women and children. We want to thank all of you loyal customers who have purchased our coffee, tea and chocolate, participating with us in this mission. All is not lost however, as we have some small inventory left that we will sell TODAY in Coy Hall from 9:15-11:15 am. Come help us clear the table and get those last chocolate bars, baking cocoa, decaf coffee and tea.

SOUL FEAST CLASS STARTING NEW BOOK

Soul Feast is now reading and discussing Thich Nhat Hanh's Living Buddha, Living Christ. His message is that peace, love, and compassion are central to the traditions of Buddha and Christ and people of both faiths can learn much from each other. Mindfulness and meditation are important practices from this Vietnamese peace activist and author of a hundred books. If interested, please join us even if you do not have the book as we shall read passages and respond in our meetings on Wednesdays at 2:00 pm in Room E240. Contact Barbie Clark at brbclark@msn.com for more information.

LET'S EXPLORE LABYRINTHS!

Come learn about the history and spirituality of labyrinths with the youth group on Sunday, February 18, from 4:30 - 6:00 pm in Coy Hall and outside. We'll have opportunities for walking the outdoor and indoor labyrinths, as well as using finger labyrinths that require no walking. Our leader for this event is Phyllis Kennemer, a Loveland resident who writes and teaches about labyrinths and was a consultant for the labyrinth at McKee Medical Center. All ages and abilities are welcome! For more information, email Laura Morgan at lmorgan@fumcloveland.com or call her at 481-4567.
