Almighty Father; we enter your presence confessing the things we try to conceal from you and the things we try to conceal from others. We confess the heartbreak, worry, and sorrow we have caused that make it difficult for others to forgive us; the times we have made it easy for others to do wrong; and the harm we have done that makes it hard for us to forgive ourselves. Lord, have mercy on us and forgive us through Christ Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Elder Bob Stephens

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Featured Element of Worship: Call to Worship

Worship is not just something that we do for one hour on Sunday mornings, but rather something that we are to offer up to God every day of our lives in everything that we do. The question that might follow from this then is, "If we are already to be worshiping as we enter the sanctuary, why do we have a Call to Worship at the start of our service?" What is implied in the phrase is the fact that the worship that into which we are entering is a specially designated time of corporate worship. In the Call to Worship then, we hear the God's words beckoning us to join our hearts and minds and voices together that we might not only worship him, but do so together as one body, his body. May our time together this morning bring glory to God as we worship him in spirit and truth!
