

Structure

There is nothing that is more important than a life of devotion to God. To be a true “Woman of Virtue,” your daily time in the presence of God is an absolute necessity. You will read at least 9 out of the 12 resources and write a synopsis.

Your commitment also includes a financial investment. We are asking that you become a systematic giver to the Indiana District Women’s Department by giving a monthly $5 offering to help us defray the cost of the program.

Your commitment involves your two most valuable commodities - your time and your money. Jesus said, “Where your treasure is there will your heart be also.” (Matthew 6:21)

At the conclusion of your assignment, you will be presented with a beautiful piece of jewelry as a celebration of your achievement.

Who can find a virtuous
and capable woman?
She is more precious
than rubies.

Women of Virtue
LET YOUR ROOTS GROW DEEP!

INDIANA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

As a chosen woman of God, our goal and desire is to move into a deeper relationship with God, our Father. “Virtue” does not happen automatically, but it is the result of intentional study and development. Virtue defined: Behavior showing high moral standards; goodness, righteousness, morality, integrity, dignity, honor, and purity: a definite and high calling that God has challenged us with.

All of us desire to grow in our walk with God. Through Women of Virtue, we have developed a plan to help you on that journey. Each of the Women of Virtue studies will lead you through a 9-book series that will enhance your relationship with Jesus. You will learn more about yourself than you ever wanted to know. God will reveal things in your life that are treasures and will bring you to a strong foundation in Him.

You have tested us,
O God;
You have purified us
like silver
