X. Church Discipline

The purpose of church discipline is the restoration of the sinning attender to Christ and the church body.

- A. Discipline of Attenders
 - 1. Biblically, believers are responsible before God to examine themselves. (1 Cor. 11:31)
 - 2. If they fail to examine themselves, the local church has this responsibility. (1 Cor. 11:32)
 - 3. In disciplinary actions it is imperative that we be sensitive to the Holy Spirit's leading and follow scriptural guidelines.
 - 4. Church discipline is for specific sins, not for differences in opinion. (1 Cor 5:1; 11-13; 2 Thess. 3:13,14; 1 Tim 5:19-21)
- B. Restoration (Matt. 18:15-20)
 - 1. The one who is aware of the offense is to be the first one to prayerfully confront the sinning attender.
 - 2. If the sinning attender refuses to repent, the first person is to take one or two witnesses for a second meeting.
 - 3. If the matter remains unresolved, it is to be brought to the elders.
 - 4. If the errant attender still refuses to repent, the elders may bring the matter to the attention of the regular attenders of the church.
 - 5. The specific sin does not need to be mentioned unless decided otherwise by the elders.
 - 6. At any time when a sinning attender repents, he should immediately be restored to fellowship and lovingly affirmed by those involved.

XIV. Prior Constitutions

This "Constitution of Steadfast Bible Fellowship" supersedes and replaces all prior constitutions.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

of STEADFAST BIBLE FELLOWSHIP

GOD

The LORD is our God, the LORD is one. Deuteronomy 6:4b

God is the only living and true God, the sovereign creator and ruler of the universe.

God exists in perfect unity within Himself as three distinct persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The Father is God. The Son is God. The Spirit is God. The persons of the Godhead are equally God in essence and yet distinctly different in function.

This Matters Because... God always was, always is, and will always be in perfect control of His universe. It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves. Our view of God is the most important thing about us. The Lord is our God, and the Lord is one. Since He is the only living and true God, He is the only God worthy of our worship and affection.

Since Jesus is God incarnate in human flesh, He was able to live a perfect life unstained by the curse of sin.

Since the Spirit is God, we can rely on His supernatural power living inside us to act exactly according to God, His character, His commands and His goals for us.

We have a model of love and selflessness within God that we try, by His grace, to emulate in our relationships within the church. Since God is united, we strive to be united.

SCRIPTURE

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

God inspired different authors, in their distinct personalities, to write the books of the Bible (2 Peter 1:19-21). God directed the process that gave us the 66 books of the Bible, therefore in their original form they are without error. Those applying themselves to study its literal, historical, and grammatical context can understand and apply God's Word to their lives and grow in relationship with God (1 Peter 2:1-3).

This Matters Because... we are prone to define truth based only on our own limited experiences, biased opinions, and selfish desires. Our belief about the Scriptures compels us to preach the Bible as truth (John 17:17), to encourage people to read it regularly (Acts 17:11), and submit to its authority as we all grow to maturity in Jesus Christ. We base our leadership, our lives, and our ministry on what God teaches in it.

CREATION

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Genesis 1:1

It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves; therefore, our lives and our bodies are not our own, but His. Since we believe God has created us, we are to glorify Him in everything we do, and not just please ourselves. 1 Corinthians 10:31

God created the heavens, the earth, and all things in them in six days and rested on the seventh day.

God formed man out of dust and breathed life into his form, making him a spiritual being. God formed woman out of the body of man. God created man and woman in His image to reflect His image to the world.

This Matters Because... since we are both physical and spiritual beings created in God's image, we are accountable to Him and have the responsibility to represent our Creator to the world. Human beings are not products of random chance but are of infinite value and worth to God.

THE FALL

Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned. Romans 5:12

Man (Adam) rebelled against God and imputed that sin to the rest of the human race. Our rejection of God's authority curses every aspect of our lives and condemns us to a life without God and an eternity separated from Him in Hell.

This Matters Because... apart from God, we are not merely sick with sin, we are dead in sin. Understanding our sin and its devastating consequences is essential to knowing our need for forgiveness and reconciliation to our Creator.

SALVATION

For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 6:23

In His grace and mercy, God promised that a descendant of Adam and Eve would provide a way for fallen human beings to be rescued from the curse of sin and death.

This Matters Because... God's response to our sin is not to destroy us but to graciously promise to save us from our sin. Despite our attempts to improve or reach perfection, even our best works are as filthy rags compared to the holiness of God. Only He offers to us the way of salvation.

We sense a moral law within us, and this law was revealed in the Ten Commandments God gave to Israel. Though we know this law - either from the moral law within us or through the Ten Commandments - we are incapable of perfectly keeping it.

If we are unable to keep the law perfectly, then we are guilty before a holy, just God, who cannot ignore sin. However, God is not only infinitely holy and just, He is perfectly merciful and loving, and was pleased to allow His Son, Jesus Christ, to bear the guilt of human sin on the cross. As the Apostle Paul described it, "He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him."

Thus, God has become both the just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus Christ. (Romans 3:21-26)

THE GOSPEL

For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. Ephesians 2:8-9

The Gospel, the great news, is that God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which He loved us, has demonstrated His love for us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. He lived a perfect life, died the sacrificial death that we deserve, and was then raised from the dead. The penalty for sin is paid.

Man's response is either acceptance or rejection of this gift. By our faith, God applies Christ's finished work to our lives and we are thereby reconciled to God. But the good news is not only that God forgives our sins, but He also declares us righteous. By faith He offers us a new way of life through faith in Jesus and through the power of the Holy Spirit working in us. If anyone is in Christ, he or she is a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Therefore, accepting this Gospel is not just a decision we make once and forget about, it results in a daily commitment to keep trusting God.

This Matters Because... our sins are so wicked that even our best works are like filthy rags compared with God's standards. We cannot earn our way to God through good works, church attendance, or moral behavior. Instead, we must place our trust in the Son of God, Jesus of Nazareth, who lived the life we could not live, died the death we should have died, and was raised so that we could be raised with Him.

HOLY SPIRIT

I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may be with you forever; that is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him because He abides with you and will be in you. John 14:16-17

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the holy Trinity—God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. They are equal in essence but different in function.

God the Father gives the Holy Spirit as a gift to those who place their faith in Jesus. The Spirit baptizes us into membership in the church, The Holy Spirit is God's pledge that He will return for us. The Spirit graciously empowers us with gifts that are to be used for building up the body of the church.

The Spirit makes His home in those who place their faith in Jesus (1 Cor. 6:19-20). He teaches us, brings to our remembrance the things Jesus has said to us in His word, convicts us of sin, and empowers us.

The Spirit is not an irrational, unreliable force that comes or goes according to our emotions. The Spirit is personal so He dwells within us and cannot be taken away from us. Since the Spirit is God, He cannot be manipulated for our own glory or selfish reasons; Jesus said the Holy Spirit “will glorify Me, for He will take of Mine and will disclose it to you” (John 16:14).

This Matters Because... we want to do the Christian life without any help but we often complain that it is too difficult. The Spirit sets us free from excuses because He empowers us to do things we don't think we can do, such as testify about the truth of Jesus, and obey in ways that we could not without Him. (Romans 8:9-11).

CHURCH

Now you are Christ's body, and individually members of it.

1 Corinthians 12:27

The church is an assembly of diverse people united by faith in Jesus Christ and called to proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called us out of darkness and into His marvelous light. The members of the church are like living stones God uses to build a spiritual house to inhabit.

Jesus is the Head of the church, which means He is the source of life, guidance, and authority.

Jesus commanded His disciples to remember His sacrificial death through the Lord's Supper. In the breaking of bread we remember how His body was broken for us and in the drinking of the cup we remember how His blood was shed for us.

Jesus also commanded us to baptize disciples in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We baptize by immersion in water to symbolize the cleansing Jesus gives us from sin. In going under water, we picture our death with Christ, and in coming out of the water, we picture being raised to new life in Christ. It is a public identification with Jesus Christ.

This Matters Because... the church is not merely a building or a program - as important as those things are. Since the church is a living body of individual believers, we are to “consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds, not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more as you see the day drawing near.”

SANCTIFICATION

But now having been freed from sin and enslaved to God, you derive your benefit, resulting in sanctification, and the outcome, eternal life. Romans 6:22

Sanctification is the process by which God lovingly makes His children holy in heart and behavior. Like a sculptor forming clay into something useful and beautiful, God transforms His people into His Son's image so we will serve Him, love others, and represent Him in the world around us.

This Matters Because... salvation is not just about asking God for forgiveness from our sins. Repenting and receiving forgiveness are the first steps on a journey that require us to trust God at every step. Understanding sanctification helps us understand that the trials and sufferings we experience are part of God's refining process.

FUTURE

But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:20

Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared. But we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as He is. 1 John 3:2

Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words. 1 Thessalonians 4:17

The future is secure in God's hands, and is moving steadily toward the return of Jesus to the earth. Though no one can know when this return will take place, we are certain that God will keep His promises, and that the believer will live with Jesus forever. Some of the most prominent of God's promises about the future include the bodily resurrection of believers, the final defeat of Satan, the destruction of evil, the restoration of God's people, Israel, and a new heaven and a new earth.

This Matters Because... it is the believer's strongest hope in the middle of a sin-stained, broken world. Though the world continues to unravel we can stand undaunted because we know how the story ends, and we can encourage others to do the same. In short, the return of Christ is the anchor for our hope. While it often seems that God has abandoned His people and that evil is winning, we cling to the promised return of Jesus and the subsequent restoration of all things.

THE BATTLE

Put on the full armor of God, so that you will be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. Ephesians 6:11

Satan was created by God and given great beauty and power, but he chose to try and usurp God's authority. In pride, he rebelled against God and tried to take His place as the ruler of heaven. God stopped this rebellion and Satan fell from heaven with a host of angelic beings and now "prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." 1 Peter 5:8-9; Isaiah 14:10-14; Ezekiel 28:1-19

Satan is the accuser of Christians, seeking any opportunity to "steal, kill, and destroy" the people of God. John 10:10; Revelation 12:9-11

This Matters Because... we cannot forget that "our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places." People are not the enemy; Satan is the enemy.

While Satan is a powerful enemy, He is an enemy Christ has already defeated through His death and resurrection. Therefore, we must not despair at his attacks nor should we dismiss them as inconsequential. Instead, we can stand firm in Christ, using His spiritual armor.

PROCESS OF APPOINTING ELDERS

at STEADFAST BIBLE FELLOWSHIP

1. A potential elder will be prayerfully identified by the current elders.
 - a. We will seek (as we grow) to have at least an equal number of lay elders to staff elders
 - b. It is recommended that the elder team have no more than 9 people on it and it is ideal to keep that number at 7 or less.
2. The identification of a potential elder takes place when one elder submits the potential elder's name at an elders' meeting. After the submission of the potential elder is made the elders will take time to discuss whether or not to pursue the man.
 - a. Discussion items will include:
 - i. Whether or not the potential elder exhibits the biblical standards of eldership as outlined in 1 Timothy 3, Titus 1, & 1 Peter 5.
 - ii. Whether or not the potential elder has been fully engaged in the pathways for spiritual growth and has gone through the leadership training process.
 - iii. Whether or not the potential elder has demonstrated the characteristics mentioned in "i" and "ii" above for a period of time.
 - iv. Whether or not the potential elder is equipped and has the time to serve in this capacity.
 - v. We believe team chemistry is critical in bringing on new elders. Will this individual add to or take away from team chemistry?
3. If, after discussions, the elders are in agreement to pursue the potential elder they may proceed in a manner mentioned below; however, if the elders are uncertain, they will commit to praying about the matter until the next elders meeting.
4. The lead pastor will set up a meeting with the elder candidate (and possibly his wife) to consider and pray about whether or not God would have them potentially serve in this capacity and whether or not they would be willing to go through the process of elder's training. [Note: this is simply asking them to pray and consider starting the training process of being an elder, at this point the candidate is NOT an elder]
 - a. The candidate will have up to a month to make their decision.
 - b. The candidate is instructed to contact the Lead Pastor as to whether or not he and his wife are feeling called to this role and are willing to begin training.
 - c. If the elder candidate and his wife are feeling led to begin training, the Lead Pastor will schedule specific times to meet with the candidate for training (as the candidate has already gone through the Leaders Training at Steadfast, the training will be with the Lead Pastor as they will go through Gene Getz's book "Elders and Leaders" (the candidate is to read through it with his wife).
5. Once the elder candidate has finished the elder's training, the Lead Pastor will meet with him and his wife. In that meeting, the Lead Pastor will ask probing questions in areas such as:
 - a. Their marriage
 - b. Pornography
 - c. Financial stewardship and giving
 - d. Unity in their commitment to Steadfast

6. If the Lead Pastor, along with the elder candidate and his wife, still feel comfortable moving forward at this point there will be a meeting scheduled with all current elders and their wives.
7. If after the meeting, the elders and their wives all sense God's leading forward in this process, the decision as to whether or not to bring the elder candidate will be put to a vote by the elders. The decision to bring the man on as an elder must be unanimous.
 - a. If the vote is unanimous, the potential elder will be presented to the congregation and the congregation will have two weeks to inform any of the current elders if they have observed that the potential candidate does not exemplify the qualities of an elder as outlined in 1 Timothy 3, Titus 1, and 1 Peter 5. If after two weeks no concerns are raised the potential elder will be affirmed as an elder at SBF. He and his wife will be brought before the church and the current elders and their spouses will pray for them as they begin to serve the Lord in this new role.
 - b. If concerns are raised by someone in the congregation, the elders will address the matter with those that raised the concerns as well as with the potential elder and his wife. The elders will then discuss the matter and determine whether or not to continue moving forward with the potential elder.
 - c. If the elder vote is divided at any time, the Lead Pastor will inform the candidate of the elders decision not to move forward.

LEADERSHIP COMMITMENT FOR ELDERS

Knowing that God has spoken clearly in His Word concerning the character and responsibility of an elder, I do solemnly commit myself to God and to the elders of this church to do the following:

2. I will be a diligent student of God's Word.
3. I will endeavor to walk continually in the Spirit.
4. I will pray regularly for those who serve with me as elders, for the pastor of the church we serve, and for the pastor's staff.
5. I will pray regularly for the ministry of the church.
6. I will give generously of my income to the work of the Lord through this church.
7. I will faithfully attend all elder's meetings, unless I am hindered from doing so by a compelling reason such as illness or necessary travel. When unable to attend, I will notify the lead pastor in advance, if possible, of the reason for my absence.
8. I will prepare for each elder meeting by doing my homework and by submitting myself anew and afresh to the Holy Spirit.
9. I will faithfully attend Sunday morning worship services
10. I will commit to building into the lives of people through the ministry of the Word and prayer on a regular basis.
11. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I will refrain from expressing negative attitudes through criticism and complaint. Instead, I will be positive and encouraging, endeavoring to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
12. I will maintain an open and teachable attitude.
13. I will commit to meeting with one other elder on a yearly, rotational basis for the purpose of accountability, encouragement and prayer.

I have studied these statements of commitment and have prayed over them, and I believe God would have me serve as an elder according to these standards.
