The Weekly Word

Up-to-date news on all church activities and Prayer Request can now be found in the Weekly Word. On Fridays, the Weekly Word is sent via email to all the church members for which we have an email address. Each Sunday, you can find a paper copy on the central table in the Narthex.

Sunday School

Children are always welcome in worship! Children are welcome to come forward for the children's sermon. After the children's sermon, children and youth from four-years-old through eighth grade will be accompanied to their classrooms in the Sunday School on the 3rd floor, where they can be picked up after worship.

Invocation

Prelude Festival Prelude on “Old Hundredth - Charles J. Torian, Jr.

Call to Worship: Liturgist: Wherever you go, from the top of the highest mountain or into the deep abysses of the earth, God knows you.

People: Wherever we go, God knows our name.

Liturgist: Whatever you do, from the time you wake up until you lay your head down again, God knows you.

People: Whatever we do, God knows our name.

Liturgist: However you live, from your inner thoughts to your public acts and everything in between, God knows you.

People: However we live, God knows our name.

Liturgist: We gather to worship God, who loves us, knows us, and calls us by name.

People: We gather to worship God, for we are fearfully and wonderfully made by God who knows our name!

Benediction

Postlude Hymn of Joy – Michael Burkhardt

Music Notes

"Old Hundredth" is a hymn tune in long meter, from the second edition of the Genevan Psalter. It is one of the best known melodies in many Christian musical traditions. The tune is usually attributed to the French composer Louis Bourgeois (c. 1510 – c. 1560).

Although the tune was first associated with Psalm 134 in the Genevan Psalter, the melody receives its current name from an association with the 100th Psalm, in a translation by William Kethe titled "All People that on Earth do Dwell". The melody is also sung to various other lyrics, including the Common Doxology ("Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow") and various German Lutheran chorales.

"The Hymn of Joy" (often called "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee" after the first line) is a poem written by Henry van Dyke in 1907 in being a Vocal Version of the famous "Ode to Joy" melody of the final movement of Ludwig van Beethoven's final symphony, Symphony No. 9.
