Now for this week's “BIG” assignment..... drumroll please..... (this is my way of being funny & adding dramatic tension at the same time....I hope it works)
Look in your room or house, what do you have more of than you need?
Then pray about finding someone to give it to who does need it. Not because you “have to” but because you “want to”. Then write about it below in 2-3 paragraphs. Some questions that might be helpful:

What did you give away? Why? How did it help them in a real way? Why do you think we asked you to do this assignment? Was this easy or hard, WHY?
