Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

A Commentary on Matthew 7:

FAMILY WORSHIP BIBLE QUIDE - REFORMATION HERITAGE BOOKS

1. A judgmental spirit, that is, judging people hypocritically without having judged our own hearts, is evidence that we have not come off the throne of our lives. The kingdom of grace is a place where God's Spirit uses the Word to help us see the judgment we are under, to encourage us to seek mercy by Christ's death, and to show mercy to one another.

How are you tempted to judge others? How should you instead judge yourself first?

2. While we are not to judge hypocritically, Jesus taught us to recognize that there are two kinds of people, and only one kind will enjoy eternal life. Christ divided mankind between travelers on the broad and narrow ways, bad trees and good trees, wise and foolish builders. His words press us to not assume all is well.

Are you on the narrow way? Are you a good tree by God's grace?

3. Christ did not teach the people the way the Pharisees did-by endless recitation of other men's opinions. Rather, He taught with authority. When we read God's Word, we cannot simply sit back to have our ears tickled. It should expose our sin, show us God in Christ, and drive us outside of ourselves to seek mercy from this King.

How have you been convicted to be a "doer" and not a "hearer" only (James 1:21-25)?

Matthew 7:12-29 ESV

 12 "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¹³ "Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. ¹⁴ For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

¹⁵ "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. ¹⁶ You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷ So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. ¹⁸ A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. ¹⁹ Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ²⁰ Thus you will recognize them by their fruits.

²¹ "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²² On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?' ²³ And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'

²⁴ "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵ And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. ²⁶ And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷ And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it."

²⁸ And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, ²⁹ for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.
