

Description:

Children's Sunday School runs concurrent to the main message during Sunday Service. This is an age appropriate lesson on the fundamentals of faith and Bible stories using fun "hands on" activities to make the lesson memorable. Sunday School is available for children ages three through middle school. A "crying room" is available for parents with children younger than three where they can tend to their child(ren) while listening to the sermon. Young adults are encouraged to participate in the Sunday service.
