Mandatory Child Protection Training - Today

Our church policy states that every three years all teachers and volunteers of children and youth will be required to have child protection training along with background checks.

To train as many people at one time we will be having a 45 minute presentation by Child Protect of Mercer County.

- When: After the worship service
- Who Must Attend: Anyone who volunteers or teaches with children or youth

Free Luncheon and free babysitting.

RSVP Bev Pelts if you cannot attend, if you should need babysitting, or if you have already received some other form of Child Protection training.

Those who cannot attend will need on-line training.
