

Sermon Notes

This week read; John 6:14-29; Matthew 3; Luke 1:39-80;
I Timothy 1:18-19; I Timothy 4:1-6; Romans 2:15

- Why do you think Mark included this narrative in his gospel?
- What does it mean to have a seared conscience? How does a conscience get seared?
- How would you describe the way Herod viewed John?
- Why do you think Herod feared John?
- Has your conscience ever been stirred by someone who was “righteous and holy”?
- When you contrast their two lives, what can we learn from the way Herod and John lived life?
- Has your conscience been seared? How?
- Is there sin in your life that you have tried to cover up, that you hoped with somehow disappear, but comes back periodically in your life? If so, what do you need to do about it?

EBF MISSIONARIES

Brady & Becca Keeling, based in Nashville, have served as missionaries with Know.Think.Act, Africa (now African Leadership) since 2007. We are thankful for their faithful ministry through the years. We were notified by them that they have sensed that the Lord is transitioning them out of their role with African Leadership. Brady starts a new job in Nashville in the coming weeks. Brady and Becca will no longer be serving as missionaries supported by EBF. Please keep them in your prayers as they begin their transitions and new opportunities.

New EBF Giving App/Changes: TODAY we are rolling out our new EBF app where all our information will be easily accessible on whatever device you like to use—smartphone, iPhone, iPad, etc. As a part of the new app, we will use a new online giving company. We have been using Easy Tithe for online giving but starting now you can make the switch to the new online giving platform. Follow the directions on the image to start giving online with our new platform. It has great features including automatic recurring giving. The new app will allow you to fill out a communication card each week, submit prayer requests, have sermon notes, listen to sermons, tithe, pay online for church events and much more.
