

The Chancel Choir of the First United Methodist Church will present "Follow the Star" on Sunday night, Dec. 9th at 6 p.m. in the sanctuary. The church is located at 800 Greensboro Ave, downtown, next to the courthouse. The choir will be joined by instrumentalists.

The program is based on C. S. Lewis's series of books including The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. This story is used to illuminate the birth of Christ but in a new age way.

Far from a traditional lessons and carols, the Land of Narnia offers a place of the imagination, a holy place, a place where one can learn as much about Christianity from myth and fairy tales as one learns from traditional scriptures and carols. In Narnia, all is brought into existence by the Song of Aslan—stars, sun, hills, trees and rivers.

Join us for a spiritual journey into the Land of Narnia.

The performance is suitable for children and young adults, especially those who have read and enjoyed this series of books. The concert is free and open to the public.
