Scripture Passage: Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.—Psalm 20:6

Lesson Theme: For the Christian trusting in Jesus, Jehovah-Nissi, victory in the battles of life is assured. Rather than trusting in the horses and chariots of this day, we trust in the name of the LORD—and Jehovah-Nissi will “answer from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.” Though victory does not always look the way we expect it to, victory is sure!

Family Discussion Questions:

- 1) Talk to your child about the kinds of battles he or she is facing. How can your child trust Jehovah-Nissi in these battles?
- 2) Sometimes victory does not come for the Christian because he is fighting battles in his own strength. What does trusting in yourself look like?
- 3) Some victories don't look like the kind of victory we expect—like when Jesus died on the cross. Sometimes God does not defeat the enemies of our soul by removing difficult situations, but by giving us heart victories in the midst of a difficult situation. Talk about these kinds of victories with your child.

Lesson Theme: There is one absolute source of truth—Jehovah-El Emeth, The LORD God of Truth. He never lies; indeed, it is impossible for Him to do so. Every word of His proves true—always. He has most clearly revealed His truth in His book. It is completely reliable and the only sure guide in life.

Family Discussion Questions:

1. Discuss the subtlety of the enemy and our vulnerability to lies. Then identify God's truth regarding the subject of the lie.
2. Talk about God's truth being the only reliable guide to life. Why is this?
3. What are the consequences of detouring from God's principles?
