On Sunday, October 19, we had a small electrical fire in one of our HVAC units upstairs during Bible class. Thanks to our Safety Team and Edmond firefighters, the situation was quickly addressed and contained. We deeply appreciate everyone's quick response and cooperative spirit as we took the precaution of briefly evacuating the main church building.

As we reflect on that event—and potential similar events in the future—we see a need for greater communication. Having a central voice and channel of communication to inform the congregation in times of crisis or emergency would be helpful.

To that end, during future emergencies or crisis situations, we plan to send out a text blast to all members containing pertinent and timely information. Examples of messages might include evacuation instructions, information on re-entering the building after evacuation, weather alerts, emergency situations, etc.

To receive these text messages, you will need to log on to your CCB profile and sign up to receive text messages from group leaders in the "MEMBERS" group. Text messages to this group will be reserved for emergency situations; you will not receive news, promotions, general information, or other enlistment notifications.

Here are detailed instructions to opt in:

- 1 Log on to your CCB profile with your photo at the top left.
- 2 At the top, under your name, click on the "Actions" down arrow to open the menu.
- 3 Click on "Communication Preferences."
- 4 On the far-right column of the next screen you will see Text settings labeled "Send me text messages from group leaders."
- 5 Input your phone carrier and phone number (with area code).
- 6 Check the groups you want to receive text messages from, including the "MEMBERS" group where all emergency messages will be sent.
- 7 Scroll to the bottom and click "Save Settings."

Whiz Kids helps children read better and get to know Jesus

Edmond church seeks volunteer mentors and substitutes for the after-school Thursday tutoring program.

By Bobby Ross Jr.

Whiz Kids, a faith-based after-school program, is coming soon to the Edmond Church of Christ.

The congregation has an opportunity to help children at neighboring Will Rogers Elementary School improve reading scores and — here's the best part — get to know Jesus.

"Yes, this is a tutoring program," children's minister Brenda Gordon said of Whiz Kids. "But really, it's an outreach. What's most important is building relationships with the children."

For a variety of reasons, children from low-income homes often struggle with schoolwork. Will Rogers is designated as a federal Title 1 school because at least 40 percent of students qualify for free or reduced-price lunches.

Whiz Kids of Oklahoma has helped improve reading scores at more than two dozen elementary schools in the Crutch, Mid-Del, Millwood, Moore, Oklahoma City, Putnam City and Western Heights districts.

Now the program — featuring one-on-one tutoring with children reading below grade level — is expanding to Edmond. And our own congregation is leading the way.

Whiz Kids will launch in January and run from 4 to 6 p.m. each Thursday.

"At the start of every session, there's a meal time," youth minister Sam Day said. "Then there's a Bible time where there's an interactive Bible lesson for kids. And then there's dedicated literacy time."

During the literacy time, volunteers — from college students to retirees — will offer one-on-one tutoring and mentoring.

"You don't have to have a ton of educational background or anything like that," Day said. "It's just a time to read with kids and help them read and work through sight words."

Day, Gordon and children's minister Laura Williamson hope to recruit at least 20 Edmond members willing to devote two hours to the program each week.

"They won't have to do any prep work," Williamson said of the volunteers. "We'll have everything for them. They'll realize just how fun it is to come and work with the kids one on one and get to know them."

Edmond member Kim Cady is helping recruit substitute tutors — with a goal of at least 10 — who can fill in when a regular mentor must miss.

Other volunteers will work with meal preparation, led by Edmond member Jane Replogle.

Another Edmond member, Emily Wood, is a Title 1 reading tutor at Will Rogers Elementary. She'll serve as the school's teacher liaison for Whiz Kids. She'll help recruit students and contact their parents to tell them about the free program available at the church. She'll also track students' reading scores and success with the program.

"It's been very Spirit-led," Wood said of the process leading to Whiz Kids' launch at Will Rogers. "I feel like it's God's work, and I'm just humbled and honored to be a part of it."

The children's and youth ministers leading Edmond's Whiz Kids all have backgrounds in education. Day majored in education at Oklahoma Christian University. Gordon and Williamson both taught in public schools before going to work full time for the church.

In fact, Williamson finished a two-year program in the science of reading before joining the church staff this summer.

"I'm really excited about this program just because it will allow me to continue with the passion I have for helping kids to read," Williamson said. "One of the things I have to remember is that the goal of this is to show the kids God's love."

The reading part is important, but the organizers have a higher goal.

"This is just an opportunity for Edmond to reach out to the people directly around us," Day said, "to be a light to our community without expecting anything in return."

The church has already developed relationships with Will Rogers Elementary, including providing a meal for staff members before school starts each year and helping with various needs for low-income children — be it underwear and socks or Christmas gifts.

Whiz Kids aims to take that neighborhood connection to a new level.

The message Day wants to convey to the children's parents is simple: "We love your kids, and Jesus loves your kids."

Use the QR code to sign up as a volunteer. Got questions? Ask Day, Gordon or Williamson. And be sure to check out the Whiz Kids of Oklahoma website at whizkidsok.org.

NOVEMBER 16 - "Christian Pharisees"

In Loving Memory of...

Doyle D. Bundrick

1942-2025

Doyle Dwain Bundrick was born to George and Moyle Bundrick in 1942, in Tulia, TX. He graduated from high school in Phillips, TX in 1960. He entered his heavenly home on November 3. When Ann asked him if he was ready to go be with the Lord, he said yes.

He met the love of his life, Elizabeth Ann Henthorn, at the University Church of Christ in Norman, OK. They were married in, 1966. They moved to Edmond, OK, after Ann graduated from OU so Doyle could attend Central State College where he earned a degree in education. They had one son, Robert, in 1980. They were both elementary school teachers for many years.

Doyle retired from teaching to pursue a career in tailoring and alterations. In the early 2000s he began to make and design costumes for the VBS drama at the Edmond Church of Christ and a few other small churches in the area with the help of many talented seamstresses. He was a drama coach for youth participating in Leadership Training for Christ for several years. He also spent almost 10 years teaching at a local Mother's Day Out.

Doyle enjoyed making flower arrangements, cooking, hosting numerous extravagant parties and just having a good time and a good laugh with friends and family.

Doyle's health suffered the last few years of his life, but he remained positive and never complained. He missed being with his church family and longed to return when his health improved and he never gave up hope that he would be able to return.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, parents, and his brother, Neal. He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Elizabeth Ann; son, Robert Bundrick; sister Marion Fullerton; sister-in-law, Corlene Bundrick; several nephews and many "family of the heart."

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to In Search of the Lord's Way, Luther Christian Service Center or Hope for Haiti's Children.

Doyle's Celebration of Life will be Monday, November 17 at 2pm at the Edmond Church of Christ.

LEAVE A NOTE FOR THE FAMILY

In Loving Memory of...

Alice Jeanette Eubanks

1941-2025

Alice Jeanette Eubanks passed away on October 24, surrounded by loving family, before being taken home to be with her Savior, whom she served faithfully her whole life.

Jeanette was born in DeQuincy, LA, on April 3, 1941, to Margaret and Clarence McCalla. She lived her first 16 years there and then her family moved to Blountstown, FL, where she graduated from high school and later attended Alabama Christian College.

There she met the love of her life, Paul W. Eubanks, and they married on June 1, 1962.

They enjoyed 60 years of marriage and had three children: Djuana, Paul Clayton and Kyle. She was known by her husband Paul as his fiery Irish-Cajun. Jeanette taught at different elementary schools through the years, but her passion was with the church, her family, grandkids, and great-grandkids. She was very loyal to her family. She really loved singing and sang with her husband and family often.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Paul; sister Ann Cooley; and son Kyle Eubanks.

She is survived by her children Djuana Eubanks King (David) and Paul Clayton Eubanks (Debbye); grandchildren Tiffany Hooper (Robbie), Traci McClay (Clark), Caleb King (Mackenna), Cole Eubanks (Sydney), KayLynn Eubanks, and Barret Eubanks; and great-grandchildren Winnie, Olivia, Lydia, Willa, Junior, Gideon, Waits, Sophia, Cyrus, and Felicity.

Services will be held Saturday, November 15, at 10am in the Edmond Church of Christ chapel.

LEAVE A NOTE FOR THE FAMILY

In Loving Memory of...

Treva Joan Renfro

1929-2025

Treva Joan Renfro, age 96, passed away peacefully on October 28, 2025, in Edmond, Oklahoma.

Joan was born in Maize, KS, to Jesse and Celestia McCain. After her mother's passing in 1932, she was lovingly raised by her foster parents, Morris and Eva Jane McMurry. She attended high school in Douglass, KS, where she met her sweetheart, Charles Eugene Renfro, after he returned from the war. The two graduated in 1947 and were married on Thanksgiving Day, 1948. They shared 62 years of marriage until Charles's passing.

After high school, Joan attended Emporia Teacher's College, earning an Emergency Teaching Certificate. She taught for three years in a one-room schoolhouse at Rogers School between Douglass and Augusta. Later, she worked in customer service for over 20 years.

Joan and Charles made their home in Augusta and Mulvane, KS, before moving to Edmond, OK, in 2011 to be closer to family. She was a devoted 4-H Club leader for more than 20 years and an active member of the church. Joan participated in World Bible School and in several Campaigns for Christ and joyfully led many to the Lord—even in her later years. Her faith was strong and steady, a guiding light in her life and a legacy she leaves behind.

Joan enjoyed fishing, camping, gardening, and tending to her flowers. She loved playing games with family and friends and proudly held the title of Wii Bowling Champion. She will be remembered for her gentle spirit, her laughter, and her unwavering love for the Lord and her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Charles Eugene Renfro; her daughter, Eugenia Press; and her son, Scott Renfro.

She is survived by her children Dennis and wife Connie; Morris and wife Lorrie; and son-in-law Paul Press; eight grandchildren: Matthew, Ryan, Heath, Luke, Sandy, Michelle, Austin, and Hunter; along with 25 great-grandchildren who brought her immense joy.

A memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on December 5th at the Kansas Veterans Cemetery in Winfield, KS.

Joan's life was a testament to faith, perseverance, and love. She will be dearly missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her.
