This is Us

Glorifying God is Our Purpose

1 Peter 2:9-10

MARCH 1, 2026

It's easy to lose sight of our true purpose. We are chosen, redeemed, and adopted in Christ for one primary reason: the praise of His glory.

MISSION UPDATE

Haiti

The Lord's work continues in Haiti despite the ongoing struggles of gang control and violence, political instability and a severe humanitarian crisis. Jacob Luisius, youth minister at the Cazeau Church of Christ in Port-au-Prince, continues to make it his mission to share the word of God with the youth at Cazeau and in doing so, equipping them to face the challenges and temptations they encounter daily. Recently, he shared a lesson with the youth based on the Good Samaritan. His goal was to teach that no matter what your circumstances are in life, you must never neglect to do good for others. In a place where these children experience so much turmoil, sacrificing for the sake of others is a powerful message.

Please pray for stability and peace in Haiti. Pray also that God will continue to provide protection and encouragement to Jacob, his family, and the church at Cazeau. Jacob is very thankful for the support and prayers of the Edmond church.

Spiritual Leadership Seminar

February 28

8:00am - 1:30pm

Fellowship Hall

WATCH THE PROMO VIDEO

Scripture calls for men to be leaders – of themselves, of their marriage, of their families, and of the Church. In all capacities, Christ-like leadership is the believer's example. Demonstrating Christ-like characteristics is essential in all phases and ages of Christian living.

Shepherding the Church carries additional responsibilities but a study of the leadership role of a Shepherd is suitable for all. Come participate and learn about the leadership model of the Shepherd as presented in Scripture.
