MISSION UPDATE

Alamo, TX

Earlier this year, Humberto Hernandez stepped down as one of the Shepherds for the Owassa Road Church of Christ due to his age and health. He and his wife, Irene, will continue to worship at Owassa Road and help where they can.

In appreciation for their many years of service to the Lord in South Texas, the congregation presented Humberto and Irene with a plaque and a small gift followed by a luncheon in their honor. As a former student and now Campus Minister, Patrick Rayner has gone on many mission trips to McAllen and Mexico where Humberto has served for years. Reflecting on Humberto's many years of ministry, Patrick commented, "Humberto has done so much for the kingdom over the years. We have all been blessed to work with him and to see what God has done through him!"

In a letter to the Edmond congregation, their current Shepherds, David Chapa and Gustavo Garcia stated, "We want to express our great appreciation for the help and support you have given brother Hernandez- past and present- and hope it will continue with us in the future. The congregation here in Alamo always considers the Edmond church as part of our family. Many of our members and visitors are eternally grateful for the work that is done during your spring break mission trips and we enjoy cooking for the group each time they come."
