REFLECTIONS...

KENT RISLEY
MINISTER

Family is highly valued at the Edmond church of Christ. We believe each individual and family is important and comes together to form God's family of faith. Family finds much of its strength and resilience through the variety of ages represented as well as personalities and abilities. This diversity within the family brings greater opportunities to serve God in more powerful ways. I'm so thankful that God has brought us all together as a church family through our common faith and is using our variety of gifts and personalities to bless each other and our world.

There are many opportunities to fellowship across generations and to develop closer relationships. These intergenerational opportunities are found in our mission trips, fellowship activities and worship as well as service opportunities like Monday for the Master and Mission Edmond. Our upcoming Spring Speaker Series on Wednesday evenings is another opportunity to study and learn with others outside our regular class. These special classes will strengthen your spiritual life and help each of us be the shining light God desires in our community.

May God continue to bless our family at Edmond so that we might strengthen one another and attract others to His saving grace.
