The Way

Living & Loving Like Jesus

What if following Jesus wasn't just a belief, but a way of life? A rhythm. A practice. A path we walk daily, intentionally, and together. Living and loving like Jesus means daily surrendering to God as He conforms us more and more into the image of His Son. Open your heart as we learn to live in the way of Jesus.

JULY 20 - "Jesus Blesses Us"

In Loving Memory of...

Jack William Klameth

1950-2025

Jack William Klameth was born and raised in Salina, Kansas, lived primarily in Texas and settled in Oklahoma. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and friend to many.

Jack was dedicated to his church and a mentor to many. He led a life in civil service, retiring from the Air Force after twenty years and then retiring from the US Postal Service after sixteen years. During the course of his life, Jack could be found coaching little league, camping with the Scouts, attending volleyball games, and his longest passion was being the Coordinator of Leadership Training for Christ where he was lovingly referred to as "Captain Jack."

Jack is survived by his loving wife of 53 years, Linda Klameth, his three children Christopher and Toby Klameth, Gordon and Angie Schultz, and Rusty and Jennifer Klameth; nine grandchildren; and many other family members. He was preceded in death by his parents, his two sisters and a grandson.

Jack was a gentle man who had a hug or handshake for all and never failed to offer a smile. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
