Acts 20:22-24

"And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. <sup>23</sup> I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. <sup>24</sup> However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace. Acts 20:22-24

- What was your last difficult decision to make? How'd you make it?

Start thinking. Ask questions to get your group thinking.

- Read Acts 20:22. Describe what it means to you, right now, to be compelled by the Spirit. No wrong answers.
- Revisit Acts 20:22-24. What can you learn from Paul?

Start sharing. Choose questions that create openness.

- Talk about a time you were prompted by the Spirit of God to do something. How'd you know it was the Holy Spirit? What did you do?

Start praying. Be bold, and pray with power.

God, we want to be compelled by Your Holy Spirit. Holy Spirit, we invite You to rule our decisions, especially when we don't know what's ahead. And, we need Your comfort when we face resistance. Give us an uncommon confidence to glorify You with even our smallest decisions. We love You. Amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- How can we challenge each other to really live compelled by the Spirit's prompting to share God's good news for His glory?
