Adoption

Introduction

Spiritual adoption is based upon the free will of man

Foundational Scriptures:

Genesis 48:4; Exodus 2:10; Esther 2:7; Psalm 91:1-11 ;
Romans 8:14-17, 23; 9:4-5; II Corinthians 6:18;
Galatians 3:25-26; 4:1-7; Ephesians 1:3-14;
Hebrews 2:10-11; 12:23; I John 3:1-2; Revelation 21:7

Nucleus of truth

God only adopts those who have been born again

Regeneration is son making and adoption is son placing

The great truth - adoption

Adoption in the Old Testament

Moses was adopted

Genubath was adopted

Esther was adopted

Adoption in the New Testament

Paul's use of the word adoption

Paul used the known to teach the unknown

Adoption makes us sons / heirs

A sure sign of adoption is the leading of the Spirit

The spirit of adoption

The Holy Spirit seals the adoption

The special inheritance of the Christian

The incomparable privileges of adoption

The gift of sonship

The leading of the Holy Spirit

The liberty of adoption

The supernatural care of God, the Holy Spirit

The privilege of having God as Father

Conclusion

What this Bible truth teaches us today

Each of us have been given the free will to choose His Son

By adoption we are made His sons and daughters:
First, by the new birth (regeneration), then adoption

The complete revelation of the believer's heirship awaits at the resurrection
