Timeless Truths
of the Bible
The 2 Adams

Introduction

The first Adam was created by God

Adam became self-centered instead of God-centered by choosing to disobey God’s command

Jesus became the last Adam, also known as the second Adam, to provide the plan of redemption for fallen man

Foundational Scriptures:

Genesis 1:26-27; 2:7, 21-23; 3:1-21; Matthew 4:1-11;

Conclusion

What this Bible truth teaches us today:

What this Bible truth teaches us today:

The good for which God is working all things together is to restore His original purpose of making us in His image

What this Bible truth teaches us today:

We have all been born with the nature of the first Adam

But by accepting Christ as Savior, we become new creations through Christ Jesus and we take on the nature of the Second Adam

What this Bible truth teaches us today:

Through salvation Christ has restored in each believer, the image of God
