Justification

Introduction

The doctrine of Justification runs through the Word of God

Old Testament

New Testament

Foundational Scriptures:

Acts 13:37-39; Romans 3:20, 24, 26; 4:1-8, 24-25

Romans 5:1-13; 8:33; I Corinthians 6:11

Galatians 2:16-17; 3:8, 11, 24; Ephesians 4:6

Titus 3:7; Hebrews 11:7 James 2:21-32

Nucleus of Truth

Regeneration is the change in the inner man that takes place at conversion, while Justification is a legal term which pictures the believer's new legal status before God through faith in Jesus Christ

The Great Truth - Justification

The meaning of Justification:

Justification originates in the Grace of God

Justification is the act of God whereby the guilty sinner is declared just by faith in Christ

Justification is based on the completed work of Christ

OT example of Justification:

Paul's inspired teaching of Justification

Paul's illustration of Abraham

God's still the same

The Method of Justification:

Paul states man is justified by faith alone

James declares that a man is justified by works

God looks upon the heart

Faith works by love

Conclusion

What this Bible Truth Teaches Us Today

In Justification the sinner stands before God as the accused and is declared free

In forgiveness through Christ he stands before
God as a debtor and receives his discharge
