THE WORD OF GOD

In the first half of the service, we encounter God by hearing and responding to his truth in the Bible.

Preparation (using The Book of Common Prayer 2019, Renewed Ancient Text)

It is customary for some to make the Sign of the Cross at times in the service when indicated by this symbol: ✠ The shape of the Cross is traced over yourself by taking the right hand and touching first the forehead, then down to the heart, up to the left shoulder, then across to the right shoulder.

Prelude

Lord Let Your Glory Fall

Verse 1

Lord let Your glory fall
As on that ancient day
Songs of enduring love
And then Your glory came
And as a sign to You
That we would love the same
Our hearts will sing that song
God let Your glory come

Chorus

You are good You are good
And Your love endures
You are good You are good
And Your love endures
You are good You are good
And Your love endures today

Verse 2

Voices in unison
Giving You thanks and praise
Joined by the instruments
And then Your glory came
Your presence like a cloud
Upon that ancient day
The priests were overwhelmed
Because Your glory came

Verse 3

A sacrifice was made
And then Your fire came
They knelt upon the ground
And with one voice they praised
A sacrifice was made
And then Your fire came
They knelt upon the ground
And with one voice they praised

The Processional

Please stand.

As the cross passes by, it is customary to bow the head to show reverence for the symbol of Christ's sacrifice and our salvation.

What A Beautiful Name

Verse 1

You were the Word at the beginning, one with God the Lord Most High.
Your hidden glory in creation,
now revealed in You, our Christ.

Chorus 1

What a beautiful Name it is,
what a beautiful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus Christ, my King.
What a beautiful Name it is,
nothing compares to this.
What a beautiful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.

Verse 2

You didn't want heaven without us, so Jesus, You brought heaven down.
My sin was great, Your love was greater;
what could separate us now?

Chorus 2

What a wonderful Name it is,
what a wonderful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus Christ, my King.
What a wonderful Name it is,
nothing compares to this.
What a wonderful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.
What a wonderful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.

Bridge

Death could not hold You,
the veil tore before You.
You silence the boast of sin and grave.
The heavens are roaring the praise of Your glory
for You are raised to life again.
You have no rival,
You have no equal.
Now and forever God, You reign.
Yours is the kingdom,
Yours is the glory,
Yours is the Name above all names.

Chorus 3

What a powerful Name it is,
what a powerful Name it is,
The Name of Jesus Christ, my King.
What a powerful Name it is,
nothing can stand against.
What a powerful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.

Ending

What a wonderful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.
What a beautiful Name it is,
the Name of Jesus.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.

MATTHEW 22:37-40

The Collect of the Day

A brief prayer on the theme of the day.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with your spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Lessons

Please be seated.

First Lesson: 1 Kings 3:3-14

Reader: Richard Lund

Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father, only he sacrificed and made offerings at the high places. ⁴ And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. ⁵ At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said, “Ask what I shall give you.” ⁶ And Solomon said, “You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant David my father, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you. And you have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne this day. ⁷ And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child. I do not know how to go out or come in. ⁸ And your servant is in the midst of your people whom you have chosen, a great people, too many to be numbered or counted for multitude. ⁹ Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, that I may discern between good and evil, for who is able to govern this your great people?”

¹⁰ It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. ¹¹ And God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, ¹² behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you. ¹³ I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no other king shall compare with you, all your days. ¹⁴ And if you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days.”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:121-136

Please stand.

Reader: Richard Lund

(the Psalm will be read responsively, with the people reading the verses in bold type)

¹²¹ I have done that which is lawful and right; *
O give me not over to my oppressors.

¹²² Be surety for your servant's good; ***
O let not the arrogant oppress me.

¹²³ My eyes have wasted away with looking for your salvation, *
and for the word of your righteousness.

¹²⁴ O deal with your servant according to your loving mercy, ***
and teach me your statutes.

¹²⁵ I am your servant; O grant me understanding, * that I may know your testimonies.

¹²⁶ It is time for you, O LORD, to act, ***
for they have broken your law.

¹²⁷ For I love your commandments above all things, * more than gold and precious stones.

¹²⁸ Therefore I hold all your commandments to be right,  and all false ways I utterly abhor.

¹²⁹ Your testimonies are wonderful; *
therefore does my soul keep them.

¹³⁰ When your word goes forth it gives light * and understanding to the simple.

¹³¹ I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath, *
for my delight was in your commandments.

¹³² O look upon me, and be merciful unto me, *
as you always do for those who love your Name.

¹³³ Order my steps according to your word, *
and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.

¹³⁴ O deliver me from those who deal wrongfully, *
and so shall I keep your commandments.

¹³⁵ Show the light of your countenance upon your servant, *
and teach me your statutes.

¹³⁶ My eyes gush out water *
because of those who do not keep your law.

(It is customary to bow during the first line of the Gloria Patri)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson: Romans 8:26-34

Please be seated.

Reader: Richard Lund

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. ²⁷ And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. ²⁸ And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰ And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

³¹ What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

³² He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? ³³ Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

✠ When the Gospel is announced, some may make three small signs of the Cross (with the thumb) on forehead, lips, and breast, to show that we will take the words to our mind, speak the words with our lips, and keep the words in our hearts.

The Gospel: Matthew 13:31-33, 44-50

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew.

People ✠ Glory to you, Lord Christ.

He put another parable before them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. ³² It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.”

³³ He told them another parable. “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened.”

⁴⁴ “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

⁴⁵ “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶ who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

⁴⁷ “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. ⁴⁸ When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. ⁴⁹ So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous ⁵⁰ and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Nicene Creed

Celebrant Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

(It is customary to bow during the following words)

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
✠ We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please be seated or kneel.

The Deacon or other person appointed leads the prayers. We pray to God for the universal Church, the clergy and people, for the mission of the Church, for the nation and all in authority, for the peoples of the world, for the local community, for those who suffer and those in any need or trouble, and in thankful remembrance of the faithful departed and of all the blessings of our lives. Additional petitions may be added.

Celebrant Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Confession and Absolution of Sin

Celebrant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

There will be a brief time of silence.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, ✠ pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Praise To The Lord, The Almighty

Verse 1

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him,
for He is thy health and salvation.
All ye who hear
Now to His temple draw near sounding in glad adoration.

Verse 2

Praise to the Lord; over all things
He gloriously reigneth:
Borne as on eagle-wings,
safely His saints he sustaineth.
Hast thou not seen how all thou needest hath been granted in what He ordaineth?

Verse 3

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy way and defend thee; Surely his goodness and mercy shall ever attend thee.
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
who with His love doth befriend thee.

Verse 5

Praise to the Lord!
O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath
Come now with praises before Him!
Let the “Amen” sound from His people again
now as we worship before Him.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

The ringing of the bell.

All Sing* Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power, of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of Your glory. (repeat)

The Prayer of Consecration

We remember, we celebrate, we receive.

The people may stand, kneel, or sit.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Sanctify us also, ✠ that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, so that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread and then the following is said.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People* Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Prayer of Humble Access

All* We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your abundant and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table; but you are the same Lord, whose character is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Agnus Dei

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;

People* have mercy on us.

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;

People* have mercy on us.

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;

People* grant us Your peace.

The Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Those who are baptized are welcome to receive the consecrated bread and wine, which manifest for us the Real Presence of Christ. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may approach with arms crossed over your chest to receive a blessing.

Bishop's Visit and Confirmations One Service on August 16 at 2:00 pm

We hope everyone will join us on August 16 for a very special Sunday as our Bishop, the Rt. Rev.'d Dr. Phil Ashley, visits and celebrates the Holy Eucharist with us, and several members of our congregation will be Confirmed or Received into the Anglican Communion.

As described in our Prayer Book, "Confirmation (or Reception) through the laying on of hands by a Bishop is the rite of public profession of faith that is expected of every adult member of the Church. In it the Holy Spirit gives grace to the believer for discipleship and ministry as a mature Christian."

We will have a single service at 2:00 pm, with the Sacrament of Confirmation following the Bishop's sermon. You are also invited to stay after the service for a Potluck Meal, where Bishop Phil will be joining us for a time to share about his Diocesan ministries and answer any questions you might have. Be sure to sign up on Sunday to let us know what food you'll be bringing for the meal.

Please save the date and invite others to share in the celebration!
