THE WORD OF GOD

In the first half of the service, we encounter God by hearing and responding to his truth in the Bible.

Preparation

(using The Book of Common Prayer 2019, Renewed Ancient Text)

✠ It is customary for some to make the Sign of the Cross at times in the service when indicated by this symbol: ✠ The shape of the Cross is traced over yourself by taking the right hand and touching first the forehead, then down to the heart, up to the left shoulder, then across to the right shoulder.

Prelude

Worthy is the Lamb Who was slain Holy, holy is He Sing a new song to Him Who sits on Heaven's mercy seat

Chorus
Holy, holy, holy
Is the Lord God Almighty
Who was and is and is to come
With all creation I sing
Praise to the King of kings
You are my ev'rything
And I will adore You

Verse 2
Clothed in rainbows of living color
Flashes of lightning rolls of thunder
Blessing and honor strength and glory
And power be to You the only wise King

Verse 3
Filled with wonder awestruck wonder
At the mention of Your name
Jesus Your name is power breath and living water
Such a marv'lous mystery yeah

The Processional

Please stand.

As the cross passes by, it is customary to bow the head to show reverence for the symbol of Christ's sacrifice and our salvation.

Crown Him (Majesty)

Verse 1
Crown Him with many crowns
The Lamb upon His throne
Hark how the heav'nly anthem drowns
All music but its own
Awake my soul and sing
Of Him who died for me
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity

Verse 2
Crown Him the Lord of life
Who triumphed o'er the grave
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save
His glories now we sing
Who died and rose on high
Who died eternal life to bring
And lives that death may die

Chorus
Majesty Lord of all
Let ev'ry throne before Him fall
The King of kings
O come adore
Our God who reigns forevermore (forevermore)

Verse 4
Crown him of lords the Lord,
who over all doth reign,
who once on earth, the incarnate Word,
for ransomed sinners slain,
now lives in realms of light,
where saints with angels sing their songs before him day and night,
their God, Redeemer, King

The Lessons

Please be seated.

First Lesson: Revelation 7:9-17

Reader: Debra Atherton

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the

Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, [10] and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" [11] And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, [12] saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

[13] Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" [14] I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

[15] "Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. [16] They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. [17] For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

Please stand.

Reader: Debra Atherton

(the Psalm will be read responsively, with the people reading the verses in bold type)*

1 Praise the Lord. O sing unto the LORD a new song; *
let the congregation of the faithful praise him.

2 Let Israel rejoice in the one who made him, *
and let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praises unto him with timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD has pleasure in his people * and gives victory to those who are oppressed.

5 Let the faithful be joyful with glory; *
let them rejoice upon their beds.

6 Let the praises of God be in their mouth *
and a two-edged sword in their hands,

7 To inflict vengeance on the nations *
and to rebuke the peoples,

8 To bind their kings in chains *
and their nobles with links of iron,

9 That they may execute judgment upon them, as it is written; *
such honor have all his faithful. Praise the Lord.

(It is customary to bow during the first line of the Gloria Patri)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson: Ephesians 1:15-23

Reader: Debra Atherton Please be seated.

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, 16 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, 18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might 20 that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. [22] And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, [23] which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Matthew.
People ✠ Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. [2] And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

[3] "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. [4] Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. [5] Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. [6] Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. [7] Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy. [8] Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. [9] Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. [10] Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. [11] Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. [12] Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

The Sermon The Rev. Astor Yelangueuzian

The Nicene Creed Please stand.

Celebrant Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,

of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

(It is customary to bow during the following words)

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
✠ We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Please be seated or kneel.
We pray to God for others.

The Deacon or other person appointed leads the prayers. We pray to God for the universal Church, the clergy and people, for the mission of the Church, for the nation and all in authority, for the peoples of the world, for the local community, for those who suffer and those in any need or trouble, and in thankful remembrance of the faithful departed and of all the blessings of our lives. Additional petitions may be added.

The Celebrant concludes with this or some other appropriate Collect:

Celebrant Heavenly Father, grant these our prayers for the sake of Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

The Confession and Absolution of Sin

Celebrant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

Please remain seated or kneel. There will be a time of silence.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to him, have mercy upon you, ✠ pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Comfortable Words

Celebrant Hear the Word of God to all who truly turn to him.

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. MATTHEW 11:28

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. JOHN 3:16

The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. 1 Timothy 1:15

If anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. 1 John 2:1-2

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And with your spirit.

Please use this time to share the peace of Christ with those around you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant
It is right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere, to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the multitude of your Saints, you have surrounded us with so great a cloud of witnesses that we, rejoicing in their fellowship, may run with patience the race that is set before us, and, together with them, may receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

The ringing of the bell.

All Sing

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power, of power and might,

The Prayer of Consecration

We remember,
we celebrate, we receive.
The People may stand, sit, or kneel.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had sinned against you and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent your only Son into the world for our salvation. By the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary he became flesh and dwelt among us. In obedience to your will, he stretched out his arms upon the Cross and offered himself once for all, that by his suffering and death we might be saved. By his resurrection he broke the bonds of death, trampling Hell and Satan under his feet. As our great high priest, he ascended to your right hand in glory, that we might come with confidence before the throne of grace.

On the night that he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat; this is my Body which is given for you: Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, Jesus took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you;

for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the forgiveness of sins: Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, and we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Word and Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. ✠ Sanctify us also, that we may worthily receive this holy Sacrament, and be made one body with him, so that he may dwell in us and we in him. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us with all your saints into the joy of your heavenly kingdom, where we shall see our Lord face to face.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us,
we are bold to pray,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread and then the following is said.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Prayer of Humble Access

All We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in your abundant and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table; but you are the same Lord, whose character is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Agnus Dei

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;
People have mercy on us.

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;
People have mercy on us.

Celebrant Lamb of God, You take away the sin of the world;
People grant us Your peace.

The Ministration of Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the people of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Those who are baptized are welcome to receive the consecrated bread and wine, which manifest for us the Real Presence of Christ. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may approach with arms crossed over your chest to receive a blessing.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

All Dear Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to possess you within my soul. And since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. I unite myself to you, together with all your faithful people gathered around every altar of your Church, and I embrace you with all the affections of my soul. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

On Sunday, November 8, Fr. Astor's sons Sebastian and JohnPaul will be baptized during our 2:00 pm service. We encourage you to attend and to support them as they come to the waters of Christian Baptism.

Announcements

On Sunday, November 15, we will celebrate our traditional Commitment Sunday with one service at 2:00pm. We will renew our Baptismal Vows and make a Statement of Faith in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. This is our annual reaffirmation of belief and commitment.

On this day, we will also present our financial pledges to God for the coming year. In so doing, we are faithfully pledging our financial resources to Him and to His ministry at Saint David's in 2027, as we remember that giving is an act of worship, and that "to give is more blessed than to receive."

After the service, we will have the joy of gathering for our Annual Parish Family Picture, followed by a Potluck Dinner in the Fellowship Hall downstairs. (A signup sheet will be available after services, or you can send us an email at janet.palmer@stdavidsanglican.org). We hope you will join us for this wonderful celebration!

Once again, this year we are partnering with Samaritan's Purse on their international relief project "Operation Christmas Child" which provides their local mission partners around the world with shoeboxes filled with small toys, hygiene items, and school supplies for gifting to girls and boys in their own communities on Christmas. The simple gifts are shipped to children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine, and disease.

Please consider supporting this ministry by taking one of the plastic boxes which can be found in the church lobby, following the printed guidelines inside the box to fill it with suitable toys and gifts, and returning it back to the church by Sunday, November 22.

Imagine how wonderful it is to bless these children in need on Christmas Day, as an outpouring of the love that we have been given in Christ Jesus, when they are able to open these special boxes and see your personal gifts to them!
