

Sermon evaluation

By _____

Sermon: _____

A Excellent, totally meets the goal

B Good, clear and on target

C Okay, acceptable

D Lacking, missed the mark

The heart of God (What did He mean when He had it written?)

...Content true to the context and meaning _____ Comments _____

...Explanation of the text was clear, understandable. _____ Comments _____

...Meaning given was good exegesis, not reading into the text _____ Comments _____

... Main idea and supporting ideas came from text _____ Comments _____

...Good amplification from other verses _____ Comments _____

The heart of the speaker (Did he/she show that the content captured them?)

...Spoke with healthy passion, as if true and important! _____ Comments _____

...Speaker wants it to be true in his own life. _____ Comments _____

... Really believes this. _____ Comments _____

The speaker's delivery _____ Variety of speed of delivery _____ Variety in movement _____
Smiled at appropriate times _____ Variety of volume _____ Enough illustrations _____
Kind spirit showed _____ Some humor _____
Spoke as one of us, not "You should..." _____ Notes unobtrusive _____

The heart of the listeners (Would they walk out saying, I want that! And not just That was good! or Yes, that was true!)

...Introduction made you want to listen. _____ Comments _____

...Conclusion made you want to do, feel, believe. _____

...You could tell listeners were really thinking. _____ Comments _____

...There were many calls to apply to our lives, not just at the end. _____ Comments _____

... Talk moved you to want to obey our Lord. _____ Comments _____

... There was adequate response time with prayer and appropriate song. _____ Comments _____

OTHER ISSUES Appearance of speaker _____ Start on time _____

Greetings before and after service _____ End on time _____

Warmth toward people _____ Length of sermon _____

Use of visual _____ Clear speaking _____

Good grammar and diction _____ Would not have to ask, "Where did you get that?" _____

OTHER THOUGHTS: