Easter Day—The Resurrection of the Lord April 1st, 2018—10:00 a.m.

Welcome.

This church is a place of prayer and encounter with God. The stones of these walls have sheltered people seeking the presence of the Holy One for almost two centuries. This place of worship has been made hallowed by the prayers of generations and you are welcome to join your heart and voice to theirs.

St Barnabas' and St John's is an inclusive community of faith in the Anglican tradition: we welcome saints and sinners, people of faith and of no faith, people who are sure they know everything and those who are full of questions. Men and women may share equally in the life and leadership of our church and we worship with and serve people of different ethnicities, politics, gender expressions, economic circumstances, and abilities. This church belongs to God, so all of God's children are welcome here.

The choir sings the verses. The congregation joins in the refrain (R).

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his mercy endures for ever. Let Israel now proclaim, "His mercy endures for ever." R

The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation. There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD has triumphed! the right hand of the LORD is exalted! the right hand of the LORD has triumphed!" R

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD. The LORD has punished me sorely, but he did not hand me over to death. R

Open for me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them; I will offer thanks to the LORD. "This is the gate of the LORD; he who is righteous may enter." R

I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation. The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. R

This is the LORD'S doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. On this day the LORD has acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it. R

Sermon

A silence for reflection follows the sermon. Please stand when the Presider stands.

The Nicene Creed

Presider Let us confess our faith as we say,

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

If you missed part of the sermon or would like to listen to it again, it will be posted on our website in the Worship section.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father.

With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Please turn to the people around you and exchange a sign of God's peace.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Hymn 212—The Strife is O'er

Victory

Prayer over the Gifts

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider: The Lord be with you. People: And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Prayers of the People are offered by members of the congregation. They reflect the needs and concerns of the local church and community, and of people in various kinds of need, sickness, or adversity throughout the world.

The Peace is exchanged with a handshake or similar greeting with those immediately around us as a symbol of our reconciliation with our neighbour before approaching the altar. It is not necessary to move from one's place.

At the Offertory, gifts of bread and wine, signs of the fruit of human labour, are brought to the altar to be transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, signs of God's love for the world.

The offering plate is passed for the money offering, a sign of our gratitude for God's blessing of our lives. Money may be offered as cash or cheque—if placed in an envelope (visitors' envelopes are in the pews), tax receipts are issued for donations of twenty dollars or more.

Presider Blessed are you, gracious God...
...joyful hymn of praise to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-
san-na in the high-est, ho-san-na in the high-est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-
san-na in the high-est, ho-san-na in the high-est.

Presider We give thanks to you, Lord our God...
...Therefore, Father, according to his command

All We remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory,

Presider and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving...
...almighty Father, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Fa-ther in heav-en, hal-low-ed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done on earth as in heav - en. Give us to-day our dai - ly bread. For - give us our sins as we for-give those who sin a - gainst us. Save us from the time of trial and de - liv - er us from e - vil, for the king - dom, the pow'r and the glo - ry are yours, now and for ev - er.

Jesus is the Host who invites us to share his Table. All those who are baptised in any tradition are welcome to receive Communion in both bread and wine. Please come forward to receive Communion as invited by the Sidespeople.

If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please cross your arms in front of your chest.

Communion may be received at either the Nave Altar by standing around the lowest level of the chancel steps or in the Chapel by kneeling at the rail. If you are unable to come to receive Communion, please indicate so to a Sidesperson, who will direct the Communion minister to come to you.

If you require gluten-free bread, please ask the Communion minister.

Please do not dip the bread into the wine.

After making your Communion, please return to your seat to pray in silence.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider Lord, we died with you on the cross.

All Now we are raised to new life.

Presider We were buried in your tomb.

All Now we share in your resurrection.

Presider Live in us that we may live in you.

The gifts of God for the People of God.

All Thanks be to God.

Hymns: 237—Now The Green Blade Rises

231—That Eastertide With Joy Was Bright

Anthem

“Glorious, Risen Christ!”

Words by David Burke, Music by Lloyd Larson

*Before the sun had arisen Mary mourned for the Lord alone, but the darkened tomb was an empty room; the Son of God was gone!
Glorious, risen Christ! Alive and robed in majesty! Yet the scars of the cross show the infinite cost, the miraculous touch of Christ’s love for us.
Mary heard his voice in the garden quietly calling her name. She could not believe, nor her mind conceive that Jesus was alive. Glorious, risen Christ! Alive and robed in majesty! Yet the scars of the cross show the* infinite cost, the miraculous touch of Christ's love for us. She reached for the hem of his garment, silent, astonished, she gazed; his feet were torn that Easter morn. She bowed before her Lord, amazed! Glorious, risen Christ! Alive and robed in majesty! Yet the scars of the cross show the infinite cost, the miraculous touch of Christ's love for us. Glorious, risen Christ! Alive and robed in majesty! Yet the scars of the cross show the infinite cost, the miraculous gift (God's holy gift,) the life-changing touch of Christ's love for us.

COMMISSIONING AND SENDING

Announcements

Please stand at the conclusion of the announcements.

Prayer after Communion

Presider All your works praise you, O Lord,

All and your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God, we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

May we, who share his body, live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup, bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world.

Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Having been fed with the spiritual food of our Lord, we now prepare to be sent into the world to share the light and life of God.

Blessing

The Presider offers the blessing; the congregation responds, "Amen."

Welcome!

Children's Ministry

We welcome children and youth. They are welcome to remain with you to worship and do not have to remain perfectly still and quiet! Please feel free to allow them to roam if they wish. An activity centre is provided in the Chapel for those who wish to use it. For children who are not yet of school age, there is a professional child care provider staffing our Nursery, which is at the end of the hallway past the washrooms. For school age children, we offer a weekly Sunday School from September to June where kids hear the same Bible readings as in the worship service and engage in activities that are designed to teach the faith.

On Posture in Worship

It is customary that we stand to pray and sing and sit to hear God's Word proclaimed and interpreted. Some people prefer to kneel to pray. Please adopt the posture that helps you to worship.

Visitor's Cards

Please do take the time to complete a visitor's card, which can be found in the pocket at the aisle end of your pew. We would love the opportunity to stay in touch with you.

Assistive Hearing Devices

If you are hard of hearing, headsets to assist you to hear the service are available. Please ask a Greeter or Sidesperson (usher) to assist you in finding and operating a headset.

Accessibility

The facility is entirely accessible through the Brock St entrance. There are three accessible parking spots in the upper lot off Brock St. The church is level with the Brock St entrance and all other levels of the facility are accessible via elevator.

Washrooms/Change Table

Fully accessible washrooms are located down the hall to the right as you enter the lobby from Brock St. A change table is in the nursery at the end of the hall.

Fragrances

We ask that you refrain from wearing strong fragrances in order to accommodate those with breathing sensitivities.
