Do you speak a language other than English? On the Feast of Pentecost, Sunday, May 20th, members of the parish will read the opening verses of John's gospel (1.1-4) in various languages. The Pentecost reading from Acts 2 will be interrupted at the words, "began to speak in many tongues", and hopefully more than a dozen languages will be spoken. Anyone with the ability and the willingness to read these verses in a language ancient or modern is invited to contact the Rev. Brad Smith or Ian Storey. There will be a brief rehearsal at 9:30 on the day.

Knitter News: This week's meeting the guest speaker will be the Rev. Maisie Watson, Manager of Peterborough Housing's Homeward Bound Program. Non knitters welcome.
