Library: As summer draws to a close and people return from their vacations refreshed, the library is highlighting different types of journeys and pilgrimages which can deepen spiritual life. The Cloister Walk is a story of a woman who lives with the Benedictine Monks at St. John's Abbey in Minnesota and The Journey is a collection of stories and prayers for the Christian Year from People of the First Nations. We haven't forgotten the children with Whisker's Great Adventure about an otter who wants to see the world but learns that home is best and A Hobbit Journey which examines the enchantment of Middle Earth.
