The Eve of Remembrance Day November 10, 2019—4:00 p.m.

Welcome.

This church is a place of prayer and encounter with God. The stones of these walls have sheltered people seeking the presence of the Holy One for almost two centuries. This place of worship has been made hallowed by the prayers of generations and you are welcome to join your heart and voice to theirs.

St John's is an inclusive community of faith in the Anglican tradition: we welcome saints and sinners, people of faith and of no faith, people who are sure they know everything and those who are full of questions. All persons may share equally in the life and leadership of our church and we worship with and serve people of different ethnicities, politics, gender identities, economic circumstances, and abilities. This church belongs to God, so all of God's children are welcome here.

As we gather to remember those who fought and died in war, we acknowledge that we are in Nogojiwanong, the traditional territory of the Mississauga Anishinaabe, adjacent to the territory of the Haudenosaunee, on whose land and by whose waters we gather by the Williams Treaty to worship, listen, learn, share, and heal together in the name of our Creator, the Holy One of Blessing. We give thanks for these, our brothers and sisters, who have volunteered to serve alongside Canadian military members in war.

Please stand as the hymn begins.

Hymn 573—O Day of Peace

Jerusalem

O day of peace that dimly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams, guide us to justice, truth, and love, delivered from our selfish schemes. May swords of hate fall from our hands, our hearts from envy find release, till by God’s grace our warring world shall see Christ’s promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, nor shall the fierce devour the small; as beasts and cattle calmly graze, a little child shall lead them all. Then enemies shall learn to love, all creatures find their true accord; the hope of peace shall be fulfilled, for all the earth shall know the Lord.

Welcome

Officiant We meet in the presence of God. We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace. We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Preres and Responses

William Byrd

Officiant O Lord, open thou our lips;
People And our mouth shall forth thy praise.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us;
People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Officiant Glory be to the Father, and the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
People As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Officiant Praise ye the Lord;
People The Lord’s name be praised.

GOD IS our hope and strength : a very present help in trou-ble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be chang-ed : and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof rage and swell : and though the mountains shake at the tem-pest of the^ same.

The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our re-fuge.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God : the holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be mov-ed : God shall help her, and that right ear-ly.

The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are mov-ed : but God uttereth his voice, and the earth doth melt a-^way.

The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our re-fuge.

O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord : what wonders he hath wrought up-on the^ earth.

He maketh wars to cease in all the world : he breaketh the bow, and snappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the cha-ri-^ots in the^ fire.

Be still then, and know that I am God : I will be exalted among the nations, and I will be ex-alt-ed in the^ earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Ho-ly^ Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world with-out end. A-men.

First Lesson

Ecclesiasticus (Sirach) 44:1-15

Reader

The First Lesson is written in the Book of Ecclesiasticus, in the forty-fourth chapter, beginning at the first verse.

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. The Lord hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies: Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent are their instructions: Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported. And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant. Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

Here endeth the First Lesson.

Magnificat

Magnificat in C, Op. 115, C.V. Stanford

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me;
and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy
hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed forever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Second Lesson

St Matthew 5:1-12

Reader The Second Lesson is written in the Gospel of St Matthew, in the fifth chapter, beginning at the first verse.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.

Here endeth the Second Lesson.

Nunc Dimittis

Nunc Dimittis in C, Op. 115, C.V. Stanford

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace :
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation :
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
to be a light to lighten the Gentiles :
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.

The Apostles’ Creed

Presider Let us confess the faith of our baptism as we say,

All I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
the holy Catholic Church;
the Communion on Saints;
the Forgiveness of sins;
the Resurrection of the body,
and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And with thy spirit.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Congregation kneels to pray.

Choir Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

All Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Officiant O Lord, show thy mercy upon us;
People And grant us thy salvation.

Officiant O Lord, save the Queen;
People And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Officiant Endue thy ministers with righteousness;
People And make thy chosen people joyful.

Officiant O Lord, save thy people;
People And bless thine inheritance.

Officiant Give peace in our time, O Lord;
People Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Officiant O God, make clean our hearts within us;
People And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect of the Day

Officiant Almighty and everliving God, we remember those whom thou hast gathered from the storm of war into the peace of thy presence; may that same peace calm our fears, bring justice to all peoples, and establish harmony among the nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

All Amen.

The Second Collect, for Peace

Officiant O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour.

All Amen.

The Third Collect, for Aid against all Perils

Officiant Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The Collect for the Armed Forces

Officiant Almighty God, stretch forth thy mighty arm to strengthen and protect the armed forces: grant that, meeting danger with courage, and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace; to the honour of thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Congregation stands

Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.

Under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood, or earth received its frame, from everlasting thou art God, to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.

The National Anthem

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land! True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise, the true north, strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free! O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

The Liturgy of Remembrance

Officiant We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away. We pray for all who, in bereavement, disability, and pain, continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror. We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may live together in freedom, justice, and peace.

Let us remember before God, and commend to God's sure keeping: those who have died for their country in conflict; those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure; and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

Reading of the Honour Roll

*The names of those members of the parish who gave their lives in the World Wars are read.
At the conclusion of the reading one minute of silence is observed to remember the Fallen.*

Act of Remembrance

Officiant They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

All We will remember them.

The Royal Anthem

National Anthem

God save our gracious Queen, long live our noble Queen: God save the Queen.
Send her victorious, happy and glorious, long to reign over us, God save the Queen.

Act of Commitment

Officiant Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and humanity: that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

All Lord God our Father,
we pledge ourselves to serve thee and all thy peoples,
in the cause of peace,
for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of thy name.
Guide us by thy Spirit;
give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope;
and keep us faithful now and always,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer of St John Chrysostom

Officiant Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

All Amen.

The Blessing

Officiant God grant to the living grace, to the departed rest, to the Church, the Queen, the Commonwealth and all people, unity, peace and concord, and to us and all God's servants, life everlasting. And the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you all and remain with you always.

All Amen.

The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended;
the darkness falls at thy behest.
To thee our morning hymns ascended;
thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank thee that thy Church unsleeping, while earth rolls onward into light, through all the world her watch is keeping,
and rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
the dawn leads on another day,
the voice of prayer is never silent, nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking thy faithful 'neath the western sky, and hour by hour fresh lips are making thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord! Thy throne shall never,
like earth's proud empires pass away;
thy kingdom stands and grows forever,
till all thy creatures own thy sway.

Welcome!

Children's Ministry

We welcome children and youth. They are welcome to remain with you to worship and do not have to remain perfectly still and quiet! Please feel free to allow them to roam if they wish. An activity centre is provided in the Chapel for those who wish to use it. For children who are not yet of school age, there is a professional child care provider staffing our Nursery September to June. When the child care provider is not present, parents and children are welcome to use the Nursery. For school age children, we offer a weekly Sunday School from September to June where kids hear the same Bible readings as in the worship service and engage in activities that are designed to teach the faith.

On Posture in Worship

It is customary that we stand to pray and sing and sit to hear God's Word proclaimed and interpreted. Some people prefer to kneel to pray. Please adopt the posture that helps you to worship.

Visitor's Cards

Please do take the time to complete a visitor's card, which can be found in the pocket at the aisle end of your pew. We would love the opportunity to stay in touch with you.

Assistive Hearing Devices

If you are hard of hearing, headsets to assist you to hear the service are available. Please ask a Greeter or Sidesperson (usher) to assist you in finding and operating a headset.

Accessibility

The facility is entirely accessible through the Brock St entrance. There are three accessible parking spots in the upper lot off Brock St. The church is level with the Brock St entrance and all other levels of the facility are accessible via elevator.

Washrooms/Change Table

Fully accessible washrooms are located down the hall to the right as you enter the lobby from Brock St. A change table is in the nursery at the end of the hall.

Fragrances

We ask that you refrain from wearing strong fragrances in order to accommodate those with breathing sensitivities.
