

St. John's Tutoring Programme

Tutor Application

First name		Last name
Address
City	Postal code	Email address
Sex <input type="checkbox"/> Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female
Home telephone ()	Cell ()	Other ()	Describe _____
Have you tutored or taught before? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	Interested in: <input type="checkbox"/> Literacy <input type="checkbox"/> Math <input type="checkbox"/> Other _____
Preferred day and time (check all that apply): Wednesday: <input type="checkbox"/> 9:30-11:00 am <input type="checkbox"/> 11:00 am-12:30 pm Thursday: <input type="checkbox"/> 9:30-11:00 am Other #1: _____ Other #2: _____
Please give us a brief description of your background that may be relevant to tutoring, as well as any teaching experience. (continue overleaf if necessary)

Literacy: The ability to read, write, and speak in English at a level that will allow students to function at a basic level on the job and in society.

Math: The ability to perform basic mathematical functions at a level that will allow students to function on a job and in daily life.

Note: All tutors will be required to undergo a police check through an agency used by the Anglican Church of Canada and attend a Sexual Misconduct Policy workshop.