

A Call to Worship

Psalm 100:1-5

Psalm 100 has been called a song of thanksgiving and a call to worship. This psalm tells us about God. God is good. God made us. God’s love lasts forever. God is faithful. It also tells us how to worship God. We should celebrate God, shout for joy, give thanks and praise to God, bless God’s name, and enjoy God’s love. God is our shepherd. A shepherd spends his time caring for and protecting his sheep. He lives with his sheep. He leads his sheep to good water and lots of grass. He loves his sheep and knows them by name. We are God’s sheep, and God loves to take care of us.

Verse of the Month

Shout triumphantly to the LORD,
all the earth!
Psalm 100:1

What Do You Think?

Do you spend more time complaining or worshipping God?

How can you worship God in all circumstances?

Family Activity

Talk about what a shepherd does and what sheep do.

Spend some time praising God together. Thank God. Bless God’s name. Share some joy.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for being our shepherd and loving and caring for us. Help us learn to praise you even in hard times; in Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.
