Civil War in China had forced hundreds of missionaries to withdraw from the country in 1927. Twelve China Inland missionaries had been martyred along with others. In 1929, the director of China Inland Mission issued a call "...for 200 men and women in two years ...200 men and women who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ and who share the Lord’s passion for souls. Men and women who believe that the gospel of Christ is still the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes."

Frank Houghton, a prolific hymn writer of his day, wrote "Facing a Task Unfinished" in support of this call for the annual meeting of China Inland Mission in May 1931. By December 31, 200 missionaries had left for China. Within 3 years, there were 1368 missionaries. Now there are many millions of Christ followers in China – because many Christ-followers responded to God’s call to “Face a Task Unfinished.”

  - David & Ginger (LHB): “Some Thoughts About Disciple-Making”
    We know that Jesus commanded His disciples to make disciples. What are we missing that makes this process feel so complicated? We want to look at some of the most basic principles of disciple-making that can jump start our obedience to Jesus’ clear command to all His disciples.
  - Tim (RM 23): “What’s Working Where The Church is Growing”
