Paul unpacks the spiritual gifts as manifestations of God’s grace among his people. How does he draw on each person of the Godhead, and what are the various ways in which he describes the gifts? (4-6)</li> <li>3. Why are the gifts given? How does this distinction keep the attention off the one who is practicing the gift? (7)</li> <li>4. Discuss and unpack the 9 gifts that Paul unwraps in verses 8-10. Consider your answers from question 3 then talk about why some of the gifts have become such a point of contention in the Church. How does focusing on the one practicing a gift, detract from the purpose or reason for which the gift was given?</li> <li>5. Have you ever explored or considered the way that God has gifted you? How have you been able to use your gifts to build up the body of Christ, thus bringing glory to God? Has your gifting changed in different seasons of life? Or have you always had the same gifting?</li> <li>6. Who empowers and apportions the gifts according to His will? So, when our gifts are in use, who should receive the glory and credit for what is accomplished?
